Building Strong Brands David A. Aaker, 1996 In Aaker's pathbreaking book Managing Brand Equity managers discovered the value of a brand as a strategic asset and a company's primary source of competitive advantage Now Aaker uses real brand building cases from Saturn GE Kodak and others to demonstrate how the best brand managers create brand equity

Building Strong Brands David A. Aaker, 2012-10-01 As industries turn increasingly hostile it is clear that strong brand building skills are needed to survive and prosper In David Aaker's pathbreaking book MANAGING BRAND EQUITY managers discovered the value of a brand as a strategic asset and a company's primary source of competitive advantage Now in this compelling new work Aaker uses real brand building cases from Saturn General Electric Kodak Healthy Choice McDonald's and others to demonstrate how strong brands have been created and managed A common pitfall of brand strategists is to focus on brand attributes Aaker shows how to break out of the box by considering emotional and self-expressive benefits and by introducing the brand as person brand as organisation and brand as symbol perspectives A second pitfall is to ignore the fact that individual brands are part of a larger system consisting of many intertwined and overlapping brands and subbrands Aaker shows how to manage the brand system to achieve clarity and synergy to adapt to a changing environment and to leverage brand assets into new markets and products As executives in a wide range of industries seek to prevent their products and services from becoming commodities they are recommitting themselves to brands as a foundation of business strategy This new work will be essential reading for the battle-ready

Branding and Advertising Flemming Hansen, Lars Bech Christensen, 2003 Based on papers from a 2002 conference

Aaker on Branding David Aaker, 2014-02-01 A highly concise and wonderfully cogent and insightful tutorial on the principles of brand stewardship and leadership Joseph V Tripodi former Chief Marketing Officer Subway and Coca Cola Aaker on Branding presents in a compact form the twenty essential principles of branding that will lead to the creation of strong brands Culled from the six David Aaker brand books and related publications these principles provide the broad understanding of brands brand strategy brand portfolios and brand building that all business marketing and brand strategists should know Aaker on Branding is a source for how you create and maintain strong brands and synergistic brand portfolios It provides a checklist of strategies perspectives tools and concepts that represents not only what you should know but also what action options should be on the table When followed these principles will lead to strong enduring brands that both support business strategies going forward and create coherent and effective brand families Nobody knows brand strategy better than David Aaker Aaker has taken all of the essential principles of branding and collapsed them into one epic brand book Whether you're a seasoned brand marketer or just getting started this book will provide you with a practical path to creating nurturing and leveraging strong brands Ann Lewnes CMO Adobe Technology I am a devoted user of David Aaker's work over many years I like many of you have benefitted from his insights in chunks Here those chunks are all pulled together and seasoned with years of his own applied work It's just outstanding Richard Lyons Dean Berkeley Haas School of Business Administration

The Strategy of Global Branding and Brand Equity Alvin

Lee, Jinchao Yang, Richard Mizerski, Claire Lambert, 2015-03-02 Why does a customer choose one brand over another What are the factors which would make an individual more inclined to choose your brand This book offers a way to predict which brand a buyer will purchase It looks at brand performance within a product category and tests it in different countries with very different cultures Following the Predictive Brand Choice PBC model this book seeks to predict a consumer's loyalty and choice Results have shown that PBC can achieve a high level of predictive accuracy in excess of 70% in mature markets This accuracy holds even in the face of price competition from a less preferred brand PBC uses a prospective predicting method which does not have to rely on a brand's past performance or a customer's purchase history for prediction Choice data is gathered in the retail setting at the point of sale The Strategy of Global Branding and Brand Equity presents survey data and quantitative analyses that prove the method described to be practical useful and implementable for both researchers and practitioners of commercial brand strategies

Growing Brands Through Sponsorship Philip Gross, 2014-11-07 Philip Gross addresses a new opportunity for growing brands that may reside within a sponsorship alliance Typically brands vie for image transfer from an event or other property when entering a sponsorship engagement Yet this practice leaves a valuable part of a sponsorship alliance unexploited Specifically the author infers from theories of social and cognitive psychology to propose and test a research model that accounts for a sponsor to also gain from brand attitude and personality traits innately tied to a co sponsor of the same event The results provide evidence for direct image transfer between two sponsor brands Hence pairing with a co sponsor might fortify or dilute a sponsor brand's image depending on the expediency of the image conveyed by that ally
