Writing the School House Blues Anne Haas Dyson, 2021 Anne Dyson confronts race and racism head on with this ethnographic study of a child s efforts to belong to be a child among children Follow the journey of a small Black child Ta Von as he moves from a culturally inclusive preschool through the early grades in a school located in a majority white neighborhood Readers will see Ta Von encountering obstacles but finding agency and joy through writing and music making especially his love of the blues Most attempts at desegregating schools are studied by reducing individual children to demographic statistics and test scores This book instead provides a child s perspective on challenges to classroom inclusion Ta Von s journey demonstrates that it is within children s peer worlds formed in response to institutional policies and practices like desegregation initiatives standardized testing and a curricular focus on so called basic literacy skills that inequity becomes part of the experience of childhood This book examines policies about literacy testing and teaching including the potential power of the written word and of the arts Few researchers have had a career so embedded inside the lives of children in a classroom context as Anne Haas Dyson This book should be on every literacy researcher s shelf It is a culmination of years of Dyson s relentless fight against deficit framings of children and the deep inequalities that continue to persist in the world Jennifer Rowsell professor of literacies and social innovation University of Bristol

Conflict Resolution in Early Childhood Edyth J. Wheeler,2004 For courses in the Guidance and Management of Young Children This text examines the nature of conflict among 2 to 8 year olds from a research based constructivist ecological perspective integrating themes of caring building classroom community connecting curriculum involving family and community and responding to the current educational climate The author thoroughly discusses children s conflicts emphasizing that peer and community culture make up the foundation for preventing and resolving conflict and advocates teaching conflict resolution skills via a three layer cake of understanding management and resolution Coverage presents ways to create a caring classroom both in physical environment and curriculum to work with other adults in a child s life and to implement peer mediation Throughout the material stresses the need to understand all children in light of applicable theory and current best practice in culturally responsive and inclusive classrooms
