this role was that Frank the son was unapologetically and outrageously gay Peter Fitzpatrick's compelling dual biography tells the story of two remarkable characters It's a kind of detective story following the tracks of two men who did all they could to cover their tracks and to conceal the self Frank the father used secrecy and sleight of hand as strategies for self protection Frank the son masked a thoroughly reclusive personality with flamboyant self parody It's also the tale of a lost relationship and of the power a father may have had even over a son who hardly knew him Looking on Darkness Diana Laurence, 2009-04 A British psychologist with a mysterious past and strange powers A former monk with the voice of an angel and untamable vanity A jazz performer who derives her confidence from a secret lover A college student obsessed with becoming someone's Lolita These four haunted characters take separate paths to meet in 1991 Milwaukee and the alchemy of their union creates thrilling bizarre magical and deadly results Looking on Darkness is Diana Laurence's first full length work outside the romance genre and draws heavily from the psychoanalytical theory of Carl Jung It is a mainstream novel of psychological vampirism that explores the deepest caverns of the mind and the darkest corners of the heart
