Gender(ed) Identities Tricia Clasen, Holly Hassel, 2016-08-25 This volume brings together diverse cross disciplinary scholarly voices to examine gender construction in children s and young adult literature It complements and updates the scholarship in the field by creating a rich cohesive examination of core questions around gender and sexuality in classic and contemporary texts By providing an expansive treatment of gender and sexuality across genres eras and national literature the collection explores how readers encounter unorthodox as well as traditional notions of gender It begins with essays exploring how children s and YA literature construct communities formed by gender ethnicity sexuality and in face to face and virtual spaces Section II s central focus is how gendered identities are formed unpacking how texts for young readers ranging from Amish youth periodicals to the blockbuster Divergent series trace reproduce and shape gendered identity socialization In section III the essential literary function of translating trauma into narrative is addressed in classics like Anne of Green Gables and Pollyanna as well as more recent works Section IV s focus on sexuality and romance encompasses fiction and nonfiction works examining how children s and young adult literature can serve as a regressive progressive and transgressive site for construction meaning about sex and romance Last Section IV offers new readings of paratextual features in literature for children from the classic tale of Cinderella to contemporary illustrated novels The key achievement of this volume is providing an updated range of multidisciplinary and methodologically diverse analyses of critically and commercially successful texts contributing to the scholarship on children s and YA literature gender sexuality and women s studies and a range of other disciplines Beyond the Blockbusters Rebekah Fitzsimmons, Casey Alane Wilson, 2020-03-18 Contributions by Megan Brown Jill Coste Sara K Day Rachel Dean Ruzicka Rebekah Fitzsimmons Amber Gray Roxanne Harde Tom Jesse Heidi Jones Kaylee Jangula Mootz Leah Phillips Rachel L Rickard Rebellino S R Toliver Jason Vanfosson Sarah E Whitney and Casey Alane Wilson While critical and popular attention afforded to twenty first century young adult literature has exponentially increased in recent years classroom materials and scholarship have remained static in focus and slight in scope Twilight The Hunger Games The Fault in Our Stars and The Hate U Give overwhelm conversations among scholars and critics but these are far from the only texts in need of analysis Beyond the Blockbusters Themes and Trends in Contemporary Young Adult Fiction offers a necessary remedy to this limiting perspective bringing together essays about the many subgenres themes and character types that have until now been overlooked The collection tackles a diverse range of topics modern updates to the marriage plot fairy tale retellings in dystopian settings stories of extrajudicial police killings and racial justice The approaches are united though by a commitment to exploring the large scale generic and theoretical structures at work in each set of texts As a collection Beyond the Blockbusters is an exciting entryway into a field that continues to grow and change even as its works captivate massive audiences It will prove a crucial addition to the library of any scholar or instructor of young adult literature

Trites Race in Young Adult Speculative Fiction offers a sustained analysis of race and representation in young adult speculative fiction YASF The collection considers how characters of color are represented in YASF how they contribute to and participate in speculative worlds how race affects or influences the structures of speculative worlds and how race and racial ideologies are implicated in YASF This collection also examines how race and racism are discussed in YASF or if indeed race and racism are discussed at all Essays explore such notable and popular works as the Divergent series The Red Queen The Lunar Chronicles and the Infernal Devices trilogy They consider the effects of colorblind ideology and postracialism on YASF a genre that is often seen as progressive in its representation of adolescent protagonists Simply put colorblindness silences those who believe and whose experiences demonstrate that race and racism do continue to matter In examining how some YASF texts normalize many of our social structures and hierarchies this collection examines how race and racism are represented in the genre and considers how hierarchies of race are reinscribed in some texts and transgressed in others Contributors point toward the potential of YASF to address and interrogate racial inequities in the contemporary West and beyond They critique texts that fall short of this possibility and they articulate ways in which readers and critics alike might nonetheless locate diversity within narratives This is a collection troubled by the lingering emphasis on colorblindness in YASF but it is also the work of scholars who love the genre and celebrate its progress toward inclusivity and who further see in it an enduring future for intersectional identity
