fiction is at the heart of our classrooms It s what we love It s what we want our students to love whether whole class novels book club texts or independent choices But to love fiction kids need to be able to and hopefully want to read without our constant guidance and instruction How can we coach students towards more proficient independent practice when they read Kate Roberts offers strategies to teach the skills students need to confidently analyze character theme and craft strategies they can repeatedly practice across time and texts Since reading strategies alone don t help teachers or students understand the why and how each strategy is anchored by Two page Essays in which Kate describes her thinking about the strategy and explores the human connection to it Why does this strategy matter How does this strategy connect to ways we can think about our own lives Lessons that offer step by step ideas for teaching the skills and strategies in ways that make sense to kids Examples of student work and ideas for feedback bring the lessons to life while templates tools and graphic organizers make teaching them that much easier The Heart of Fiction is about more than skill building It s also about the conditions we can set up in our teaching to make this work stick and for our students to truly grow into themselves as readers It s about the lifeblood of our classrooms
