photographic work made in Naples by Anders Petersen Swedish master of photography during Spot home gallery s first artist residency in the year 2022 The book presents a selection of the photographic work made in Naples by Anders Petersen Swedish master of photography during Spot home gallery s first artist residency in the year 2022 Throughout his long career Petersen has photographed in cities across almost every continent from Tokyo to London from Valparaíso to Stockholm driven by an inexhaustible curiosity and a profound interest for the other For him photography serves as a means to explore the complexity of the human experience to capture with sensitivity and honesty the emotions that define and unite us as living beings part of the one big same family Naples a city world of many thousand facets with its chaos and its diverse humanity was the ideal place for a photographer like him it is precisely in chaos that life unfolds with all its unpredictability vibrancy and beauty They had never met before but when it happened it was love at first sight Anders was struck by the city

s energy and enthusiastically accepted the not so easy challenge of photographing it Naples revealed herself without filters without fear of showing its wounds and vulnerabilities open to the empathetic approach of a photographer who can look beyond the surface of things who can find beauty in the ordinary and embrace its imperfections The Social Pathologies of Contemporary Civilization Kieran Keohane, 2016-03-03 The Social Pathologies of Contemporary Civilization explores the nature of contemporary malaises diseases illnesses and psychosomatic syndromes examining the manner in which they are related to cultural pathologies of the social body Multi disciplinary in approach the book is concerned with questions of how these conditions are not only manifest at the level of individual patients bodies but also how the social bodies politic are related to the hegemony of reductive biomedical and individual psychologistic perspectives Rejecting a reductive biomedical and individualistic diagnosis of contemporary problems of health and well being The Social Pathologies of Contemporary Civilization contends that many such problems are to be understood in the light of radical changes in social structures and institutions extending to deep crises in our civilization as a whole Rather than considering such conditions in isolation both from one another and from broader contexts this book argues that health and well being are not just located at the level of the individual body the integral human person or even collective social bodies rather they encompass the health of humanity as a whole and our relationship with Nature A ground breaking analysis of social malaise and the health of civilization this book will be of interest to scholars of sociology social theory social psychology philosophy and anthropology Anders Petersen Anders Petersen, Göran Odbratt, 2019-09-05 Anders Petersen s chaotic lyrical love letter to present day Stockholm Swedish photographer Anders Petersen born 1944 has spent four years 2015 2018 documenting the people and urban spaces of Stockholm This volume gathers his energetic black and white images of a rapidly expanding city of everyday life and celebration of young and old snow falling on Katarinavägen a parade of dachshunds in Gröndalsplan an operating theatre in Danderyd New Year s Eve celebrations at Skeppsbron s giant Christmas tree The book constitutes Petersen s first portrait of his native city previously and famously he has photographed psychiatric hospitals circuses prisons the city of Rome and the Café Lehmitz in Hamburg Anders Petersen is at his best when he freezes a low key moment Liljevalchs director Morten Castenfors writes in the book A snowy and desolate winter street a glimpse of wonder Images that reveal his incredible sensitivity his presence and his love of what he sees be it a person or an object that leads us to an unexpected association

Worshippers of the Gods Mattias P. Gassman, 2020 Worshippers of the Gods shows how fourth century Latin writers rethought traditional religion during Christianity s rise Through five interlocking studies of inscriptions laws senatorial papers and Christian polemics it traces shifting conceptions of paganism from the Tetrarchic persecution through Constantine s reign to the disestablishment of the Roman cults in the 380s Conversations and Controversies in the Scientific Study of Religion , 2016-02-15 Luther H Martin and Donald Wiebe together have spent the better part of a century exploring possibilities for a scientific study of religion The following essays are a record of their conversations together and of their conversations and controversies with a number of leading scholars in religious studies that address that possibility As with any scientific endeavor knowledge advances when research assumptions and experimental designs are collegially discussed and critically assessed It is hoped that these essays might provide the occasion for scholars in the field to discuss the theoretical and methodological issues they have raised to debate and expand upon them or in the spirit of forthright scientific inquiry to refute the arguments they have made Bollettino dei Musei Comunali N.S.XXVI/2012

Lieu,2024-11-11 As allegiance to Jesus Christ spread across the Roman Empire in the second century writings practices and ideas erupted in a creative maelstrom Many of the patterns of practice and belief that later become normative emerged in the midst of debate and argument with neighbours who shared or who rejected that allegiance Authoritative texts principles of argument attitudes to received authority the demands of allegiance in the face of opposition identifying who belonged and who did not all demanded attention These essays explore those divergent voices and the no less diverse and lively debates they have inspired in recent scholarship

Controlling Contested Places Christine Shepardson,2019-05-14 From constructing new buildings to describing rival controlled areas as morally and physically dangerous leaders in late antiquity fundamentally shaped their physical environment and thus the events that unfolded within it Controlling Contested Places maps the city of Antioch Antakya

Turkey through the topographically sensitive vocabulary of cultural geography demonstrating the critical role played by physical and rhetorical spatial contests during the tumultuous fourth century. Paying close attention to the manipulation of physical places, Christine Shepardson exposes some of the powerful forces that structured the development of religious orthodoxy and orthopraxy in the late Roman Empire. Theological claims and political support were not the only significant factors in determining which Christian communities gained authority around the Empire. Rather, Antioch's urban and rural places far from being an inert backdrop against which events transpired, were ever-shifting sites of and tools for the negotiation of power, authority, and religious identity. This book traces the ways in which leaders like John Chrysostom, Theodoret, and Libanius encouraged their audiences to modify their daily behaviors and transform their interpretation of the world and landscape around them. Shepardson argues that examples from Antioch were echoed around the Mediterranean world, and similar types of physical and rhetorical manipulations continue to shape the politics of identity and perceptions of religious orthodoxy to this day.

Spaces in Late Antiquity Juliette Day, Raimo Hakola, Maijastina Kahlos, Ulla Tervahauta, 2016-05-26. Places and spaces are key factors in how individuals and groups construct their identities. Identity theories have emphasised that the construction of an identity does not follow abstract and universal processes but is also deeply rooted in specific historical, cultural, social, and material environments. The essays in this volume explore how various groups in Late Antiquity rooted their identity in special places that were imbued with meanings derived from history and tradition. In Part I, essays explore the tension between the Classical heritage in public, especially urban spaces, in the form of ancient artwork and civic celebrations, and the Church's appropriation of that space through doctrinal disputes and rival public performances. Parts II and III investigate how particular locations expressed and formed the theological and social identities of Christian and Jewish groups by bringing together fresh insights from the archaeological and textual evidence. Together, the essays here demonstrate how the use and interpretation of shared spaces contributed to the self-identity of specific groups in Late Antiquity and, in so doing, issued challenges and caused conflict with other social and religious groups.

Paradiso Lorenzo Castore, 2005. For Lorenzo Castore, in his dynamic photographs of Cuba and Mexico, colour is everything. He uses it in extraordinary ways, conveying a rich sense of place and atmosphere. The resultant images are revealing and powerful portraits of his subjects: cafés, bars, streets, and the everyday. This is the winning project of the 2005 Leica European Publishers Award, whose previous winners include Simon Norfolk, Bruce Gilden, Dario Mittelli, and Jeff Mermelstein. A worthy and fascinating addition to the list of previous winners, Paradiso is constantly surprising and striking.

Readings of the Centurion at Capernaum Christopher B. Zeichmann, 2022-10-28. The first ever monograph on the history of queer biblical interpretation of a controversial biblical passage. Since the 1950s, homoerotic readings of the pericope in which Jesus heals a Roman centurion's slave have been built upon three of the account's features: the specific Greek word pais which can refer to youth slave or the junior partner in a sexual relationship between two men Luke's characterization of the young man as dear entimos to the centurion and commonplace homoeroticism in the Roman army Rather than affirming or denying the historical reality of a sexual relationship between the centurion and the young man Christopher B Zeichmann instead traces the shifting patterns of queer readings of the text and the influences of the sexual political and theological discourses of late twentieth and early twenty first century Europe the United States and Australia Readers will see how distinct political contexts have led interpreters to find very different meanings about the sexual subtexts of this story

Dura bellezza Marco Delogu,2004 Venice and the Radical Reformation Riccarda Suitner,2023-12-04 The Republic of Venice was the only Catholic territory in which an Anabaptist community formed in the 16th century The history of Venetian Anabaptism hitherto little known in Reformation Studies is the focus of this book Using a large quantity of archival material and rare printed sources Riccarda Suitner reconstructs the lives of the Republic's Anabaptists and the inquisitorial repression they suffered and analyses the doctrinal specificities of the Radical Reformation in this area This story represents a fundamental stage in the relations between German central European and Italian culture in the early modern period Events in Venice are presented within a broader comparative framework paying particular attention to the German states Switzerland the Polish Lithuanian Commonwealth Transylvania Moravia Tyrol and the Kingdom of Naples It will emerge that its Venetian history cannot be ignored if we are to gain a true understanding of the European Reformation Understanding Texts in Early Judaism József Zsengellér,2022-03-07 This volume remembers G za Xeravits a well known scholar of deuterocanonical and Qumran literature The volume is divided into four sections according to his scholarly work and interest Contributions in the first part deal with Old Testament and related issues Thomas Hiecke Stefan Beyerle and Matthew Goff The second section is about the Dead Sea Scrolls John J Collins John Kampen Peter Porzig Eibert Tigchelaar Bal zs Tam si and R ka Eszt ri The largest part is the forth on deuterocanonica Beate Ego Lucas Brum Teixeira Fancis Macatangay Tobias Nicklas Maria Brutti Caldusch Benages Nuria Pancratius Beentjes Benjamin Wright Otto Mulder Angelo Passaro Friedrich Reiterer Severino Bussino Jeremy Corley and JiSeong Kwong The third section deals with cognate literature J zsef Zsengell r and Karin Sch pflin The last section about the Ancient Synagogue has the paper of Anders Kloostergaard Petersen Some hot topics are discussed for example the Two spirits in Qumran the categorization of the Dead Sea Scrolls the authorship and anthropology of Ben Sira and the angelology of Vitae Prophetarum Reading Dionysus Courtney J.P. Friesen,2015-07-17 Courtney J P Friesen explores shifting boundaries of ancient religions by way of the reception of a popular tragedy Euripides Bacchae As a play staging political crises provoked by the arrival of the foreign god Dionysus and his ecstatic cult audiences and readers found resonances with their own cultural moments This dramatic deity became emblematic of exuberant and liberating spirituality and at the same time a symbol of imperial conquest Thus readings of the Bacchae frequently foreground conflicts between religious autonomy and political authority and between ethnic diversity and social cohesion

This cross disciplinary study traces appropriations and evocations of this drama ranging from the fifth century BCE through Byzantium not only among pagans but also Jews and Christians Writers variously articulated their religious visions over against Dionysus often while paradoxically adopting the god's language and symbols Consequently imitation and emulation are at times indistinguishable from polemics and subversion
