Ndlovu-Gatsheni,Pedzisai Ruhanya,2020-10-21 This book is the first to tackle the difficult and complex politics of transition in Zimbabwe with deep historical analysis Its focus is on a very problematic political culture that is proving very hard to transcend At the center of this culture is an unstable but resilient nationalist military alliance crafted during the anti colonial liberation struggle in the 1970s Inevitably violence misogyny and masculinity are constitutive of the political culture Economically speaking the culture is that of a bureaucratic parasitic primitive accumulation and corruption which include invasion and emptying of state coffers by a self styled Chimurenga aristocracy However this Chimurenga aristocracy is not cohesive as the politics that led to Robert Mugabe s ousting from power was preceded by dirty and protracted internal factionalism At the center of the factional politics was the first family Robert Mugabe and his wife Grace Mugabe This book offers a multidisciplinary examination of the complex contemporary politics in Zimbabwe taking seriously such issues as gender misogyny militarism violence media identity modes of accumulation the ethnicization of politics attempts to open lines of credit and FDI national healing and the national question as key variables not only of a complete political culture but also

A History of

Northwestern Zimbabwe, 1850-1960 Godfrey Tabona Ncube, 2004

Africa Assistant Professor Morten Jerven, 2015-06-11

A valuable corrective to the fraying narrative of African failure Foreign Affairs Not so long ago Africa was being described as the hopeless continent Recently though talk has turned to Africa rising with enthusiastic voices exclaiming the potential for economic growth across many of its countries What then is the truth behind Africa's growth or lack of it In this provocative book Morten Jerven fundamentally reframes the debate challenging mainstream accounts of African economic history Whilst for the past two decades experts have focused on explaining why there has been a chronic failure of growth in Africa Jerven shows that most African economies have been growing at a rapid pace since the mid nineties In addition African economies grew rapidly in the fifties the sixties and even into the seventies Thus African states were dismissed as incapable of development based largely on observations made during the 1980s and early 1990s The result has been misguided analysis and few practical lessons learned This is an essential account of the real impact economic growth has had on Africa and what it means for the continent s future
