

Study Guide and Proposed Study Ideas for HSC English Standard 2021

This guide is ONE way to study for English. It has been put together particularly for those people who don't know where to start – with this guide the simple answer is “Start at page 1 and work your way through”.

To be able to approach the exams with confidence, you need to get a handle on:

- Know the module descriptions
- Know the texts – know the texts; don't just remember a couple of quotes
- Know the relevant compositional techniques for each of the types of texts studied
- Make connections between texts and module descriptions
- Be able to answer questions relevantly – this means deconstructing questions, writing responses and asking for feedback
- Be able to write cohesive responses – this means practicing responses and asking for feedback

Using this guide:

1. Begin with the Study Overview – English Examination (Page 2) to remind yourself of the structure and demands of the English examination papers.
2. Then spend time to write basic overviews/summaries of information regarding each of the modules and texts in the table titled Study Overview – Texts and Concepts.
3. Following this is a suggested approach to basic study of each of the modules. For each module the approach is:
 - a) Identify the key features of the module description (You can't forget this; questions come from this)
 - b) Reference to the second part of this study package – the STUDY GUIDE BOOKLET  – this is a booklet containing information taken from a couple of study guides – if you don't know your text well enough this can help
