Landmine Monitor Report 2003 ,2003 Military Psychology for Africa Gideon Van Dyk,2016-03-17 Military Psychology for Africa is the first textbook of its kind from Africa Selected authors with competent military psychology knowledge skills expertise and experience each contributed a chapter to this unique book The book empowers academics students and military fellows to apply this knowledge at academic institutions and military units during operations and in presenting short courses The book will also equip soldiers with new knowledge for advancing peace on the continent and abroad The Monthly Army List Great Britain. Army,1901 The Army List Great Britain. Army Department,1952

"Keep Your Head Down" Norma Kriger,2007 Recommendations Background The legal framework The Immigration Act violations and legal gaps resulting in human rights abuses Employment laws violations and legal gaps resulting in human rights abuses Conclusion Acknowledgements Air Force Magazine ,1986 Landmine Monitor Report 2000 ,2000 East Timor Taiwan Replicating & Reproducing Policing Research Khadija Monk,Jacek Koziarski,2024-04-30 This book addresses the need for policing scholarship to strengthen its empirical cumulative knowledge base by replicating and reproducing earlier studies The chapters in this volume advance policing research by replicating and reproducing earlier studies investigating the generalizability of research findings and making data and research methods available to other researchers to encourage scientific exploration of previous research findings Each chapter addresses important scientific goals of validity reliability and generalizability which build our cumulative knowledge of what is known in policing research ultimately informing policymaking The book offers insights into why replicating and reproducing policing scholarship is critical from emphasizing the importance of making data and study material publicly available to facilitate replications and reproductions to reproducing studies in new contexts and cautioning against making policy making decisions based on studies that have not been replicated This volume highlights the immense value in shifting researchers priorities even slightly to focus less so on originality and innovation to make room for replications and reproductions thereby shedding light on how true empirical knowledge on policing and police practice is dependent on it This book was originally published as a special issue of Police Practice and Research Post-conflict Reconstruction and Development in Africa Theo Neethling,Heidi Hudson,2013-10-01 Some of the bloodiest conflicts occur on the African continent An Afrocentric perspective is therefore a suitable starting point for research into the possible strategies for post conflict peacebuilding The authors of this book consider the problems around the concept of post conflict and the blurring of military and civilian roles analysing the UN roles in the DRC and Sierra Leone as well as the African Union Mission in Burundi The main context of the book however is the South African Army s strategy for PCD in Africa which was developed with the African Union s 2006 Post Conflict Reconstruction and Development Needs Assessment Guide in mind This book emanates from this plan It therefore also explores South Africa s policy imperatives to integrate development projects and peace missions involving the military as well as civilian organisations While this book is not intended as an instruction manual it hopes to ignite an understanding of the particular processes required to develop a sustainable and cohesive post conflict peacebuilding strategy within the African environment

Tradition and Change in Legal English Christopher Williams, 2007 In this volume the author examines verbal constructions in prescriptive legal texts written in English Modal auxiliaries such as shall may and must are analysed as well as indicative tenses such as the present simple and also non finite constructions such as the ing form and ed participles Results are based on specially compiled corpora of prescriptive texts coming from a wide range of English speaking countries and also international organizations such as the European Union and the UN The author also analyses the nature extent and impact of the calls for change in legal language coming from the Plain Language Movement Although legal language tends to be depicted as being highly conservative and unchanging the author shows that in certain parts of the English speaking world a minor revolution would appear to be taking place while in other parts there is greater resistance to change

Human rights adjudication in Africa: Challenges and opportunities within the African Union and sub-regional human rights systems Alejandro Fuentes, Annika Rudman, 2024-02-26 The collection of chapters contained in this book originates from the 1st Raoul Wallenberg Institute Regional Africa Academic Network Conference held at the University of Zimbabwe Harare Zimbabwe in October 2022 The main aim of this book is to advance an understanding of the way Africa regional and sub regional human rights systems contribute to access to justice on the continent and to generate further knowledge about the institutions that make up the African human rights adjudication system the African Court on Human and Peoples Rights the African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights the African Committee of Experts on the Rights and Welfare of the Child and sub regional courts such as the Economic Community of West African States Community Court of Justice

African Navies Timothy Stapleton, 2022-11-11 This edited volume focuses on aspects of the understudied theme of African sea power including African navies and the engagement of non African navies with the continent Africa possesses 48 000 kilometers of coastline comprising 38 out of 54 of the continent's states and several strategic choke points for international shipping such as the Suez Canal the Gulf of Aden and the Cape of Good Hope Nevertheless post colonial Africa's small navies and their relations with the navies of external powers have not received much scholarly attention Focusing on Sub Saharan Africa this collection attempts to address this neglect and stimulate further research by offering original chapters related to historical and contemporary themes around Africa's navies The historical chapters cover the origin of the Tanzanian Ethiopian Nigerian and Ghana navies during the era of decolonization and the Cold War the asymmetrical naval campaign fought during the Nigerian Civil War 1967-70 and the activities of the Soviet Navy in supporting African states and movements fighting lingering colonialism and white supremacy during the 1970s and 1980s Focusing on the contemporary situation other chapters discuss the engagement of the Indian Navy with Africa the potential role of the Angolan and Mozambican navies in the Southern African Development Community SADC the transformation and development of the post apartheid South African Navy and the challenges and capabilities of African navies in the early twenty first century The book concludes by discussing the question of whether African coastal countries need navies This book will be of much interest to students of naval power strategic studies African politics and International Relations Chapters 1 2 6 and 8 of this book are available for free in Open Access at www.taylorfrancis.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license

The Hot 'Cold War' Vladimir Shubin,2008-10-20 This book analyses the causes of armed conflicts in Southern Africa during the Cold War It examines the influence of the various external forces in the region during this period and their relationship to local movements and governments The book focuses on states experiencing violent internal conflict and foreign intervention that is Angola Mozambique Namibia South Africa and Zimbabwe The author provides an unique history of the key part that the Soviet Union played in these developments Spanning 30 years the book explores how each country struggled for genuine independence against colonialism and apartheid and their place in the wider conflicts encompassed by the Cold War

Democratizing Foreign Policy? Philip Nel,Janis Van der Westhuizen,2004-01-01 In Democratizing Foreign Policy Lessons from South Africa fifteen established and emerging scholars use South Africa as a case study to assess the extent to which democratic consolidation can be translated into the realm of foreign policy Contributors discuss the South African Community as an arena of transnational democracy the impact of European Union trade policy and the significance of South Africa s controversial arms deals as they explore the opportunities and constraints facing recently democratized societies in the Southern Hemisphere This book provides a broad ranging assessment of the opportunities and challenges involved in opening the process of foreign policy making to civil society and the need to do so if the developing world is to better manage the complexities of globalization
