Research Handbook on Communication and Prejudice Elvis Nshom, Stephen Croucher, 2024-08-06 This informative Research Handbook brings together a unique combination of methodological philosophical and theoretical perspectives to present a comprehensive overview of communication and prejudice research The North Korean Threat Douglas C. Lovelace (Jr), 2017 Terrorism Commentary on Security Documents is a series that provides primary source documents and expert commentary on various topics relating to the worldwide effort to combat terrorism as well as efforts by the United States and other nations to protect their national security interests Volume 145 The North Korean Threat examines the strategies adopted by the United States China and the international community in response to the nuclear threat posed by North Korea The volume includes a selection of documents chosen to illustrate developments in this area from 2010 through 2016 with commentary from series editor Douglas C Lovelace Jr The documents in this volume include 2016 UN Security Council resolutions on North Korea Congressional Research Service reports covering various aspects of the U S response to North Korea s nuclear program a U S Department of Defense report prepared for Congress on military and security developments related to North Korea and a detailed description of the U S sanctions program against North Korea from the U S Treasury Department s Office of Foreign Assets Control

Social Cognition, Motivation, and Interaction: How Do People Respond to Threats in Social Interactions? Eva Jonas, Christina Mühlberger, 2018-01-12 If we want to understand people s responses to threats in social interactions we can distinguish between three levels of analysis On a social level of analysis we can describe people s interpersonal behavior on a cognitive level we can identify corresponding information processing mechanisms and on a neural level we can specify neural systems which underlie these processes In this Research Topic we want to present research connecting these three levels of analysis and propose their functional interconnection in social interaction We propose that threats in social interactions activate basic motivational processes which manifest in neural processes related to behavioral inhibition vs activation in a social situation This shapes our attention to new information and affects our cognitions about social identities belief systems and worldviews These changes in social cognition in turn affect people s behavior in social interactions and lead to corresponding reactions on behalf of the interaction partner Thus we assume that people s reactions to threat in interactions can be described as sequences of broader attentional processes resulting from basic motivational tendencies leading to specific social cognitions and subsequent behavior within social interactions We can analyze this sequence in order to contribute to a better understanding of social interactions The three levels of analyses social cognitive neural shed light on social interactions from different angles On the social level we can analyze how the behaviors of the interaction partners mutually affect each other and how this is accompanied by specific cognitive emotional and motivational processes On the cognitive level we can analyze people s perception of a social situation leading to attentional and reasoning processes with regard to their interaction partner s which may be accompanied by certain emotional and motivational processes and determines the behavior towards the partner s Finally we can focus on the neural mechanisms underlying cognitive emotional and motivational processes in social interactions Victimology Rejani Thudalikunnil Gopalan,2022-10-27 The term victim refers to a person harmed injured or killed as a result of a crime accident or other event or action Victimology focuses on the victimization in terms of psychological effects impact on criminal justice system and new policies and it is a major aspect in the area of forensic field Victimization can occur due to abuse assault maltreatment war terrorism crimes and it can happen in different settings like home school and public In the past more emphasis was given to perpetrators and various theories tried explain the behavior of perpetrator and their offences Recently researchers started focusing different aspects of victimology and explored risk factors for becoming victim reasons for repeated victimization and forensic psychological and social dimensions of victims and consequences of victimization But there is a need for new theories and researches to have more thorough understanding of victimization The field of criminology dealt with crimes and various theories has developed to explain why crime occurs and more focused on perpetrators A crime involves perpetrator and victim and not much attention has been given to the victim until recently What happens to a victim what are the psychological and social consequences of a harmful act to a victim vulnerabilities to become a victim are getting serious attention now a days and started influencing the criminal justice system The psychological and social impacts of victimization may be a short or long duration but the impacts cannot be ignored The legal remedies and psychological healings are important aspects of victimization While considering these factors the book would be focusing on origin and scope of victimology different types of victimization such as sexual abuse domestic violence maltreatment cyber crimes war and terrorism natural calamities victimization at school and work place human trafficking crime against persons crime against property white collar crime elder abuse victim with disabilities secondary victim and re victimization and its psychological impacts and related issues The book would also focus on victimology and forensic factors and its influence on criminal justice system in addition to the psychological management of victimization Exit Threats in Regional

International Organizations Diana Panke,Lukas Grundsfield,Pawel Tverskoi,2025-09-30 Available open access digitally under CC BY NC ND licence This book offers a comprehensive analysis of why and when member states threaten to withdraw from regional international organizations RIOs A unique dataset covers over 120 exit threats across RIOs from all world regions The book explains variation as a result of limited specific and diffuse support such as the inability to exert influence or prevail under majority decision making as well as a lack of democratic socialization With nationalism and populism on the rise this timely study unpacks crucial pressure points in international institutions offering invaluable insights into how they can maintain stability in the face of internal contestations Racism and Identity in a Xenophobic World Secil E. Ertorer,2024-12-16 This book is written against the backdrop of heightened racism and xenophobia in the contemporary world It elucidates how race operates in racially and ethnically diverse societies and becomes a divisive force The book offers an interdisciplinary multi level model for understanding the roots of racial prejudice and hatred towards the other by incorporating individual group institutional and societal factors Moreover it elaborates on the negative effects of racism on the identity and psychological well being of individuals and proposes strategies to counteract these issues An empirical study conducted with Asian American and Pacific Islander communities during the COVID 19 pandemic demonstrates the practical application of the theory The significant increase in anti Asian racism from 2020 to 2022 illustrates how easily xenophobia and racism can be triggered during times of rapid change instability and uncertainty While the primary focus is on the USA the study s findings are relevant to multiracial societies globally This book is intended for researchers and students of interdisciplinary social sciences interested in inequality racism and othering as well as those studying the Asian diaspora It is also of wider interest to anyone especially practitioners seeking to understand and dismantle the problem of heightened othering and racism
