Romantic Dialogues and Afterlives Monika Coghen, Anna Paluchowska-Messing, 2020 Romantic writers often asserted their individuality but this assertion tended to take the form of positioning themselves in relation to other authors and literary texts. Thus they implicitly acknowledged the rich network of broadly understood poetic dialogue as an important and potent source for their own creativity. When in 1816 John Keats wrote 'Great spirits now on earth are sojourning', he celebrated the originality of his contemporaries and the historical significance of his times, pointing to deep interest in the hum of mighty works in all the fields of human activity to which the nations ought to listen. Keats's sonnet suggests not only stimulating exchanges between poets, artists and social thinkers in the same language but also the idea of transnational appreciation and dialogue. The volume takes up this idea and explores the dialogues of Romantic authors within the wide scope of European and American cultures. Essays by scholars from Germany, Britain, Bulgaria, Poland, Canada and the United States of America examine Romantic writers' responses to their contemporaries, explore their dialogues with the culture of the past and their interactions across the arts and sciences. They also scrutinize the Romantics' far-reaching influence on later writers and artists and thus extend the network of artistic exchange to modern times. The volume offers a rich tapestry of interconnections that span across time and space, interlace languages and cultures and link Romantic writers and artists with their predecessors and successors across Europe and America. The essays in the collection invite the reader to join ongoing dialogues between writers and their audiences of the past and present.

Orvosi hetilap, 1894 Proud to be Deaf: Saintliness in the Catholic Deaf community in South Africa from 1874-1994 Mark James, 2025-05-15 This thought provoking book details the history of Catholic ministry to the Deaf community in South Africa over 120 years. This history provides a backdrop to Deaf people's emerging understanding of themselves as a people imbued with dignity and having their own language and culture. The philosopher Emmanuel Levinas' understanding of saintliness, which is the ethical pursuit of prioritising one's neighbour's needs above those of one's own, provides a lens through which to both sympathetically and critically read this history. The book ends by paying tribute to the Deaf people in the Catholic Church who contributed significantly to raise Deaf people's awareness of their innate dignity and of sign language as a gift from God The book inspires newness boldness and resilience in ministry to approach the Kingdom of God and encounter the face of Christ crucified crucified by the forces of phonocentrism and audism There are many lessons to be learnt that gives voice and appeal to what Ruben Xulu s image evokes Christ was Africa crucified In sum the book pronounces words of blessing to remember and sign a new journey together from the heart Associate Professor Glenn Morrison School of Philosophy and Theology at the University of Notre Dame Fremantle Australia
