Many teachers struggle with decisions about what these introductions should address, what they should include, and how to conduct them. Powerful Book Introductions: Leading with Meaning for Deeper Thinking literacy leaders Kathleen Fay, Chrisie Moritz, and Suzanne Whaley speak to these concerns by taking a close look at the purposeful planning that goes into preparing for this small but vital part of today's guided reading lessons. Through relatable classroom examples and the wisdom of their shared teaching experiences, the authors show you how to select texts for your small group lessons specifically based on your students' needs. Amplify meaning-making from the first moments of your guided reading book introductions and maintain this emphasis. Introduce visual and structural information to support your readers in meaning-making. No matter where you are in your understanding of guided reading, Powerful Book Introductions will help you as you learn to craft student-centered, meaning-driven book introductions that prepare your readers for success. Black Books Galore! Guide to Great African American Children's Books about Girls Donna Rand, Toni Trent Parker, Black Books Galore!, 2001 Provides descriptions of over three hundred books suitable for girls at various ages and reading levels, all of which contain positive images of African American girls. I Like Myself Toni Sturdivant, 2023-05-16 Support young Black children in developing a positive racial identity. It is critical that young children begin to form a positive sense of their own identity. I Like Myself uses the latest research into positive identity formation to provide practical solutions for educators. It links together lesson planning, insights, academic activities, and children's book recommendations that are designed to facilitate positive racial identity in Black children, covering topics including hair texture, skin tone, language, self-esteem, and media representation. Supplementing and complementing any curriculum, this critical resource provides information across social, emotional, academic, and fine arts domains that stay faithful to curricular goals while specifically targeting the racial identity needs of Black preschoolers. Targeting the Black identity specifically, the lessons are designed to be engaging, meaningful, and effective for all students so each child feels valued and accepted while also gaining the knowledge and skills that they need to be successful. Featuring recommendations for over 150 children's books to support positive identity formation in Black children and 70 activities and
