Alternate Translation 1st John Chapter 5:

A Commentary on the Letters of John Birger Olsson, 2013-08-13 The long history of interpretation of the three Johannine letters has been largely characterized at least since Irenaeus in the late second century by the assumption that the Elder was addressing the Gnostic heresy In recent years particularly with the work of Raymond Brown attention has been focused on the internal schism within the Johannine or Beloved Disciple's community thus taking the first epistle as a corrective to secessionists misguided attempts to read the Gospel of John in an advanced spiritualizing manner Birger Olsson returns to a less common perspective one that views the crisis facing the Elder as a wholly intra Jewish problem The Johannine community comprised Jewish believers who regarded Jesus as the long promised Messiah of Israel but at some point in the community's life under the leadership of one Diotrephes some members of the community chose to reject this conviction and to entice other members to do likewise Olsson anchors his thoroughgoing interpretation of the three letters in this conflict among Jewish Christians over the nature of the Messiah and the renewal of Israel's ancient covenant Among other things this implies that the letters were written in reverse order of their numbering

The Use of PAS in the New Testament J. William Johnston, 2004 This book examines in detail the use of the pronominal adjective all each every in the Greek New Testament focusing on how syntactical patterns and the semantic value of words or phrases it modifies are factors determining its sense and scope These findings are applied to the interpretation of several debated passages in the New Testament A Moral Transformation Andrew J. Wallace, R. D. Rusk, 2011 Recent scholarship has challenged post Reformation ideas about the early Christian doctrines of salvation This ground breaking book draws together the conclusions of recent scholarship into a compelling and clear view of the early Christian paradigm of salvation It presents the case that the early Christians focussed not on Christ s death on the cross or saving faith but on moral transformation They saw Jesus as God s appointed teacher prophet and leader who died as a martyr in order to teach them a new way of life Their paradigm of salvation centred upon this way of life taught by Jesus and on following faithfully his example and teachings Part 1 How the Gospels present Jesus explores the way in which the early Christians understood the teaching of Jesus It highlights five themes of Jesus message economics and wealth moral purity social equality the temple system and physical and spiritual affliction It shows why people viewed Jesus as a divinely appointed teacher prophet and leader and saw his death as a martyrdom for his cause and movement Part 2 Doctrines of the early Christians presents the key early Christian doctrines of salvation and shows why several post Reformation doctrines conflict with their views It shows that the early Christians believed God s final judgment is made on the basis of character and conduct They believed that by following Jesus and transforming their lives morally they would obtain positive judgment and resurrection This part shows how the early Christians ideas of faith justification forgiveness and grace all fit into this paradigm Part 3 The importance of Jesus looks at why the early Christians considered Jesus so significant they focussed on the moral transformation he brought to their lives This part highlights what they believed Jesus achieved for them and how they used sacrificial language to explain these beliefs It explores the evidence for viewing Jesus death as a martyrdom and for seeing his resurrection as equally important Part 4 Ideas throughout history shows that Christians held this paradigm of salvation for several centuries It outlines the key changes that occurred from the 4th century through to the Reformation which moved tradition away from the early Christian ideas Finally it offers a critique of modern post Reformation doctrines of salvation

Discerning the Day of the Lord

Russell Stendal, 2021-04-09 The darkness that will come upon the people of God at the beginning of the day of the Lord shall not be the same as the affliction that came upon her when Jesus came the first time The end of the age of grace will not be as dark as the end of the age of the law because the Gentile people that walked in darkness have seen a great light those that dwell in the land of the shadow of death upon them has the light shined Yes it s true that great apostasy has engulfed much of Western Europe and seems to be making quite a bit of headway in North America But what about places to name a few such as China Iran Egypt Venezuela Cuba Brazil Colombia Africa and even India where the gospel is surging Most of the end time harvest is taking place under great adversity and persecution So for now it can be said As thou hast multiplied the nation the people of God thou hast not increased the joy But the day of the Lord will be the biggest game changer ever seen in human history For those among the people of God who have clean hearts when Jesus returns They shall rejoice before thee as they rejoice in the harvest and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil even as all the kingdoms of this world crumble and come down The vision of Isaiah is a prophetic hub placed in the middle of the Scriptures with ties to almost every book in the Bible most are footnoted in this work There are living parables of events that actually happened during the lifetime of Isaiah prophecies regarding Judah and Jerusalem with both a near and a far fulfillment all interwoven with messianic prophecy depicting events surrounding the first and second comings of Jesus Christ the final judgment and the new creation with new heavens and a new earth A central theme of Isaiah relates to the day of the LORD as does the book of Revelation We know there is a special blessing on the seventh day Genesis 2 3 Scripture also defines what some call a prophetic day mentioned in both the unique Psalm attributed to Moses For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past and as a watch in the night Psalm 90 4 and by Simon Peter But beloved be not ignorant of this one thing that one day before the Lord is as a thousand years and a thousand years are as one day 2 Peter 3 8 Human history has now entered into the beginning of the seventh millennium since the creation of Adam according to the years and generations meticulously recorded in Scripture There is however the possibility of two distinct timelines one dating from the creation of Adam and the other dating from the fall of man when the present world system founded on lies devised by Satan began Scripture does not specify exactly when the curse was pronounced and Adam and Eve were expelled from the Garden of Eden The original world created by God and founded on truth was pronounced very good It s clear however that Satan subverted the authority God had placed on Adam and this sorry situation will not be corrected until the day of the Lord the seventh millennium We now appear to be in an ambiguous period in which it s clear no matter what relatively minor discrepancies there may be in our calendar that more than six thousand years have passed since the creation of Adam However it does not appear that six thousand years have gone by since the fall of man If the seventh prophetic day begins with the demise of Satan and the promise he will be bound for a thousand years the first resurrection of those who will reign and rule with Christ for a thousand years and the return of Jesus Christ then it s also clear that the prophesied day of the LORD has not yet begun although it may be very close This is when religion that has been contaminated by man by humanism and manipulated by the devil will all come down The pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this To visit the fatherless and widows in their tribulation and to keep thyself unspotted by the world James 1 27 As we enter the end time events described by Isaiah it s good to keep in mind that there is a substantial godly remnant containing true ministers servants of God who like Isaiah have been cleansed by the fire of God and commissioned from the throne and who have authority to represent God according to his will They desire to see the people entrusted to their care joined to the Lord Jesus so that all of God s people may have intimate communion with him and with the Father by the Holy Spirit This is the only covering that will provide secure protection How much time do we have left I think we probably do have a little time but not a lot The world situation around us is not improving It is in fact degenerating rapidly even though some countries are experiencing spiritual revival We can expect things to continue to polarize as the bride of Christ is cleansed and purified and as Babylon the Great continues to degenerate The evil in the world will soon pass a threshold that will trigger the indignation and wrath of God the Father and Jesus will soon return for a bride without spot or wrinkle or any such thing These two things seem to happen in very close succession on the day of the Lord There are other prophetic markers that may bear watching The two thousandth anniversaries of the beginning of the ministry of Jesus of his death and resurrection of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost and of the destruction of Jerusalem and the temple are all coming up within what many of us can expect to be our lifetime Even if the coming of the Lord should be delayed so that more people can be given the opportunity to be saved we are told to always be ready None of us knows when our own death will take place and when we could be suddenly thrust into the presence of God Russell M Stendal December 17 2020 Bogot Colombia

Religious Individualisation

Martin Fuchs,Antje Linkenbach,Martin Mulsow,Bernd-Christian Otto,Rahul Bjørn Parson,Jörg Rüpke,2019-12-16 This volume brings together key findings of the long term research project Religious Individualisation in Historical Perspective Max Weber Centre for Advanced Cultural and Social Studies Erfurt University Combining a wide range of disciplinary approaches methods and theories the volume assembles over 50 contributions that explore and compare processes of religious individualisation in different religious environments and historical periods in particular in Asia the Mediterranean and Europe from antiquity to the recent past Contrary to standard theories of modernisation which tend to regard religious individualisation as a specifically modern or early modern as well as an essentially Western or Christian phenomenon the chapters reveal processes of religious individualisation in a large variety of non Western and pre modern scenarios Furthermore the volume challenges prevalent views that regard religions primarily as collective phenomena and provides nuanced perspectives on the appropriation of religious agency the pluralisation of religious options dynamics of de traditionalisation and privatisation the development of elaborated notions of the self the facilitation of religious deviance and on the notion of dividuality The Chinese Christology of T. C. Chao Yongtao Chen,2016-09-19 This volume offers a careful analysis of the contextual Christology of T C Chao one of the most important Chinese theologians and Chinese church leaders in the first half of twentieth century At the core of Chao s Christology is the encounter between Christianity and the Chinese people in particular the Chinese Christians In response to the rapid social changes in China between 1910 1950 he attempted to develop a relevant theology by focusing on the characteristics of Christianity and at the same time aiming to understand Christianity within its Chinese context Beholding Strahan Coleman,2023-02-07 Move from a transactional experience with God to a transformational friendship with Him through prayer How can time with God be a source of peace in a loud and distracting world In Beholding spiritual director and poet Strahan Coleman invites readers to discover the joy of being with God not just working for Him As they inhabit the art of resting in God s presence prayer becomes not only a place of seeking but becoming Beholding calls Christians to understand how Prayer is so much more than spoken conversation between us and God it s a way of existing together Beholding God in prayer is profoundly connected to beholding and dignifying others Embracing prayer practices from different Christian traditions digs a deep well of peace in the soul Our everyday ordinary lives can become the meeting place for God through silence solitude community creation and hospitality A Pentecostal Commentary on Revelation Jon K. Newton,2021-02-15 This new commentary approaches Revelation from a Pentecostal perspective but you may be surprised at what this does and doesn t mean in this case This is a serious commentary based on the Greek text and includes discussion of all the standard topics authorship date audience etc It gives interpretive priority to the original context and audience while also discussing application today Newton eschews all populist interpretations of Revelation and questions many assumptions built on futurist or historicist readings but includes a survey of recent scholarly Pentecostal work on Revelation and an extended discussion of what an authentic Pentecostal reading of Revelation might look like The commentary highlights features of Revelation that Pentecostals often look for such as its pneumatology but also draws attention to features that Pentecostal readers should take more seriously than they often do such as its missional focus the narrative flow intertextual references and the focus on atonement This makes it a more optimistic commentary than many available The commentary interacts in depth with five leading commentaries over the past twenty five years as well as over two hundred other books and articles including the oldest existing commentary on Revelation Holman Concise Bible Dictionary Holman Bible Editorial Staff,2011 More than four thousand entries cover key people places and events found in the Bible I, II & III John Judith Lieu,2008-01-01 The New Testaments three letters attributed to John have always provided remarkable theological riches for the Christian tradition including the assertion God is love Scholars have struggled to discern if these documents are from the same person who wrote the Gospel of John and have worked to see each of these writings within their own situation and context Each letter shows how an early Christian author responded to threats against authority by recourse to the correct teachings of the faith and a proper understanding of the relationship between Jesus and God Together these letters argue for a bond of unity among believers based on fidelity to the truth of God The Holy Bible, Containing the Old & New Testaments ,1888 Dictionary of Deities and Demons in the Bible Karel van der Toorn,1999 The Dictionary of Deities and Demons in the Bible DDD is the single major reference work on the gods angels demons spirits and semidivine heroes whose names occur in the biblical books Book jacket The Holy Bible Adam Clarke,1818 The Holy Bible Containing the Old and New Testaments: the Text Printed from the Most Correct Copies of the Present Authorized Translation, Including the Marginal Readings and Parallel Texts: Romans to Revelation Adam Clarke,1851 The Assembly Herald ,1899 Jesus in the Gospels Winkley Professor Emeritus of Biblical Theology Leander E Keck,2005-09 Study Manual content illuminates some aspect of the Jesus in the Gospels each week and connects Scripture to daily life and Jesus call to discipleship The overarching aim is to deepen discipleship through better understanding of the biblical texts and their message The study helps group members understand that Jesus is rooted in Judaism and the Scriptures of Judaism and that Christianity and the New Testament are rooted in the Scriptures of Judaism our Old Testament The Study Manual guides daily study and preparation for the weekly group meeting The main elements in the format are designated by scriptural phrases They have no wine John 2 3 is a brief statement about the human condition and alerts the reader to some aspect of daily life that Scripture can shed light on Beginning with Moses and all the prophets Luke 24 27 is a way of referring to Scripture as a whole and signals the fact that we can understand Jesus in the Gospels better by understanding the Old Testament better Do you want to become his disciples too John 9 27 New International Version is designed to stimulate thoughtful reflection so readers can come to their own conclusions about what their own discipleship calls for Accompanying each day s Scripture reading assignments are suggestions of things to look for that take the reader deeper into Scripture As readers become aware of detail in Scripture they might ask themselves repeatedly What am I to make of this The study manual provides space for writing notes on insights observations and questions related to the Scripture and for putting into words personal perceptions of Jesus from the week s Scripture Alternative Lives of Jesus Roland H. Worth, Jr.,2010-06-28 There is a body of religious literature most of which was written centuries after the New Testament that attempts to provide supplemental or alternative accounts of the life of Jesus Christ The most exhaustive surviving alternative versions to the New Testament come from orthodox circles and are often creative imaginings that try to fill holes in the canonical gospel accounts of Jesus life This work investigates the origins and nature of noncanonical retellings in detail both orthodox and heretical as well as Roman and traditionalist Jewish ones Extensive summaries of the text as well as substantial verbatim extracts of key incidents and assertions are provided to give the reader a feel for the character and intents of the various sources A concise introduction to a much neglected area of Bible related study that should be of potential use to students of Biblical literature comparative religion and early medieval thought
