All submissions to CommonHealth should use American Medical Association \(AMA\) style, 11th edition. Formatting your submission in AMA style reduces processing time and facilitates the peer review process. For authors who are new or unfamiliar with AMA style, we have compiled a list of helpful resources. This list is not exhaustive and is not meant to be used in place of the AMA Manual of Style. Many university libraries provide free access to this and other helpful resources for students, faculty, and staff. Authors may also consider contacting a librarian for further support. The link to contact a librarian or subject matter expert from Temple University can be found here.
