Recent Developments in Annexin Biology Jyoti K. Jaiswal, Volker Gerke, Ursula Rescher, Lina Hsiu Kim Lim, 2021-08-30 Discovered over 40 years ago the annexin proteins were found to be a structurally conserved subgroup of Ca^{2+} binding proteins While the initial research on annexins focused on their signature feature of Ca^{2+} dependent binding to membranes over the years the biennial Annexin conference series has highlighted additional diversity in the functions attributed to the annexin family of proteins The roles of these proteins now extend from basic science to biomedical research and are being translated into clinical settings Research on annexins involves a global network of researchers and the 10th biennial Annexin conference brought together over 80 researchers from ten European countries USA Brazil Singapore Japan and Australia for 3 days in September 2019 In this conference the discussions focused on two distinct themes the role of annexins in cellular organization and health and disease The articles published in this Special Issue cover these two main themes discussed at the conference offering a glimpse into some of the notable findings in the field of annexin biology

Government Reports Announcements & Index, 1995 Introductory Biological Statistics John E. Havel, Raymond E. Hampton, Scott J. Meiners, 2019-04-30 A thorough understanding of biology no matter which subfield requires a thorough understanding of statistics As in previous editions Havel and Hampton with new co author Scott Meiners ground students in all essential methods of descriptive and inferential statistics using examples from different biological sciences The authors have retained the readable accessible writing style popular with both students and instructors Pedagogical improvements new to this edition include concept checks in all chapters to assist students in active learning and code samples showing how to solve many of the book's examples using R Each chapter features numerous practice and homework exercises with larger data sets available for download at waveland.com
