His entire family came close to losing their lives on the sea as they escaped from war-torn Vietnam in an overcrowded boat. Migrant Nation Paul Longley Arthur, 2017-12-15 Focusing on particular historical blind spots by telling stories of individuals and groups that did not fit the favoured identity mould, the essays in Migrant Nation work within the gap between Australian image and experience and offer fresh insights into the other side of identity construction. The volume casts light on the hidden face of Australian identity and remembers the experiences of a wide variety of people who have generally been excluded, neglected, or simply forgotten in the long running quest to tell a unified story of Australian culture and identity. Drawing upon memories, letters, interviews, and documentary fragments as well as rich archives, the authors have in common a commitment to give life to neglected histories and thus to include in an expanding and open-ended national narrative people who were cast as strangers in the place that was their home. Anh Do's The Happiest Refugee Catriona Mills, 2021 Insight Text Guides take students into the deeper layers of meaning in a range of popular novels, plays, films, short story collections, and nonfiction texts. They are designed to develop detailed knowledge in depth, understanding, and genuine insight into each text. Vietnamese Migrants in Australia and the Global Digital Diaspora Anh Nguyen Austen, 2022-09-16 Through oral histories, memoirs, and Facebook posts of Vietnamese adults who entered Australia as children after the Vietnam War, and Vietnamese refugees, war orphans, and children of refugees, this book provides insight into the memories of forced migrant childhoods and histories, as well as the complexities of national and transnational identity and belonging in digital diaspora. As war and displacement compound the need for creating communities and histories for cultural continuity, this book is a history about childhood and migration for the Vietnamese diaspora of refugees, adoptees, and second generation in Australia, and their connectedness to a global and digital diaspora. Using Facebook as a digital archive for historical research, Vietnamese Migrants in Australia and the Global Digital Diaspora presents new methods for the study of what Nguyen Austen proposes as a new area of digital diaspora studies for interdisciplinary research about real and digital life in the humanities and social sciences. As a contemporary digital diaspora study of Vietnamese forced child migrants from 1975 to the present, this book contains a mixed methods historical analysis of the impact of war and displacement on memories of childhood. This book presents an innovative history of the national, transnational, digital, and contemporaneous lives of Vietnamese child migrants, which will make a significant contribution to the discourse on transnational childhood, migration, and belonging for refugees and migrants in the twenty-first century. Essential English Skills for the Australian Curriculum Year 10 2nd Edition Anne-Marie Brownhill, 2016-07-18 The second edition of the popular Essential English Skills for the Australian

Young People and Everyday Multiculturalism Anita Harris, 2013. Unlike as with previous generations, diversity and multiculturalism are engrained in the lives of today's urban youth. Within their culturally diverse urban environments, young people from different backgrounds now routinely encounter one another in their everyday lives and negotiate and contest ways of living together and sharing civic space. What are their strategies for producing, disrupting, and living well with difference? How do they create inclusive forms of belonging, and what are the conditions that militate against social cohesion amongst youth? This unique ethnography from education and cultural studies expert Anita Harris explores the ways young people manage conditions of cultural diversity in multicultural cities and suburbs, focusing particularly on how young people in the multicultural cities of Australia experience, define, and produce mix, conflict, community, and citizenship. This book illuminates rich local approaches to living with difference from the perspective of a generation uniquely positioned to address this global challenge.

Meaning Making With Picture Books Heather Sharp, Debra Donnelly, 2025-10-21. This book examines well-known poetry picture books and multimodal texts to explore how visual and literary texts shape collective memory and historical understanding, with an initial focus on World War I before expanding to include more current contested issues, topics such as colonialism, immigration, and First Nations experiences. Organized into three sections, the book discusses the role of picture books in teaching difficult histories, analyses postmodern picture books addressing controversial topics, and provides a framework for classroom pedagogy. This approach highlights the importance of empathy, ethics, and creative expression in history education, showcasing how storytelling through multimodal texts bridges the past to the present.

Handbook of Artistic and Cultural Responses to War since 1914 Martin Kerby, Margaret Baguley, Janet McDonald, 2018-12-05 This handbook explores a diverse range of artistic and cultural responses to modern conflict from Mons in the First World War to Kabul in the twenty first century With over thirty chapters from an international range of contributors ranging from the UK to the US and Australia and working across history art literature and media it offers a significant interdisciplinary contribution to the study of modern war and our artistic and cultural responses to it The handbook is divided into three parts The first part explores how communities and individuals responded to loss and grief by using art and culture to assimilate the experience as an act of survival and resilience The second part explores how conflict exerts a powerful influence on the expression and formation of both individual group racial cultural and national identities and the role played by art literature and education in this process The third part moves beyond the actual experience of conflict and its connection with issues of identity to explore how individuals and society have made use of art and culture to commemorate the war In this way it offers a unique breadth of vision and perspective to explore how conflicts have been both represented and remembered since the early twentieth century
