Utopia and the Village in South Asian Literatures A. Mohan, 2012-07-24 Shifting the postcolonial focus away from the city and towards the village this book examines the rural as a trope in twentieth century South Asian literatures to propose a new literary history based on notions of utopia dystopia and heterotopia and how these ideas have circulated in the literary and the cultural imaginaries of the subcontinent

Global Failure and World Literature Karen Borg Cardona, 2023-10-24 While the contemporary era has witnessed a series of spectacular failures with severe and widespread global consequences failure is still broadly understood on an individual level while its broader causes and consequences receive little attention This book reconceptualises failure as a method for characterising and critiquing systems and institutions on both a global and a local level It defines global failure as comprising global inequality economic crisis and ecological disaster and as a condition which informs and is informed by localised failure It examines the negotiation between global and local failure in narratives of failed quests by four contemporary authors Cormac McCarthy Julia Kristeva Michael Ondaatje and Basma Abdel Aziz As a genre the quest narrative is associated with the idea of hard won success The failed quest narrative or the narrative of the failed quest is therefore the ideal vehicle through which to examine the socio political and institutional conditions of failure Primarily a contribution to the field of world literature this book is also relevant to those with an interest in the contemporary novel failure studies and the quest narrative
