health is ever more contested Along with the two earlier books Therapeutic Revolutions 2013 and Voices of Mental Health 2017 Transformed States is the final volume of a landmark cultural and intellectual history of mental health in the United States journeying from the combat zones of World War II to the global emergency of COVID 19

Rethinking Gothic Transgressions of Gender and Sexuality Sarah Faber, Kerstin-Anja Munderlein, 2024-03-11 From early examples of queer representation in mainstream media to present day dissolutions of the human nature boundary the Gothic is always concerned with delineating and transgressing the norms that regulate society and speak to our collective fears and anxieties This volume examines British and American Gothic texts from four centuries and diverse media including novels films podcasts and games in case studies which outline the central relationship between the Gothic and transgression particularly gender ed and sexual transgression This relationship is both crucial and constantly shifting ever in the process of renegotiation as transgression defines the Gothic and society redefines transgression The case studies draw on a combination of well studied and under studied texts in order to arrive at a more comprehensive picture of transgression in the Gothic Pointing the way forward in Gothic Studies this original and nuanced combination of gendered Ecogothic queer and media critical approaches addresses established and new scholars of the Gothic alike

A History of the Literature of the U.S. South: Volume 1 Harilaos Stecopoulos, Harry Stecopoulos, 2021-05-20 Drawing on diverse theories and methods this collective volume emphasizes the multi ethnic and transnational aspects of southern literature over a four hundred year period

The Apocalyptic Dimensions of Climate Change Jan Alber, 2021-09-07 Climate change and the apocalypse are frequently associated in the popular imagination of the twenty first century This collection of essays brings together climatologists theologians historians literary scholars and philosophers to address and critically assess this association The contributing authors are concerned among other things with the relation between cultural and scientific discourses on climate change the role of apocalyptic images and narratives in representing environmental issues and the tension between reality and fiction in apocalyptic representations of catastrophes By focusing on how figures in fictional texts interact with their environment and deal with the consequences of climate change this volume foregrounds the broader social and cultural function of apocalyptic narratives of climate change By evoking a sense of collective human destiny in the face of the ultimate catastrophe apocalyptic narratives have both cautionary and inspirational functions Determining the extent to which such narratives square with scientific knowledge of climate change is one of the main aims of this book

Annihilation Movie Tie-in Jeff VanderMeer, 2018-02-20 The acclaimed bestseller now a major motion picture from Alex Garland Ex Machina starring Natalie Portman Once you start this book you will not be able to stop The Globe and Mail Area X has been cut off from the rest of the continent for decades Nature has reclaimed the last vestiges of human civilization The first expedition returned with reports of an Edenic landscape the second ended in mass suicide and the third in a hail of gunfire as its members turned on one another The members of the eleventh expedition returned as short lived shadows of their former selves In Annihilation we join the twelfth expedition The group is made up of four women a biologist the narrator a psychologist the de facto leader an anthropologist and a surveyor Their mission is to map the terrain record all observations of their surroundings and of one another and above all avoid being contaminated by Area X itself They arrive expecting the unexpected and Area X delivers they discover life forms that surpass understanding But it is the secrets they've carried across the border with them that change everything Annihilation won the Nebula Award science fiction writing's most prestigious prize appeared on multiple bestseller lists and on over thirty Best of the Year lists and has been published in more than twenty five countries It is now the basis of one of the most anticipated films of 2017 writer director Alex Garland's follow up to Ex Machina with an all star cast including Natalie Portman Oscar Isaac Jennifer Jason Leigh Gina Rodriguez and Tessa Thompson

Acceptance Jeff VanderMeer, 2015 A contemporary masterpiece Guardian THE THIRD VOLUME OF THE EXTRAORDINARY SOUTHERN REACH TRILOGY NOW A MAJOR MOTION PICTURE WRITTEN AND DIRECTED BY ALEX GARLAND EX MACHINA AND STARRING NATALIE PORTMAN OSCAR ISAAC GINA RODRIGUEZ AND TESSA THOMPSON One last desperate team embarks across the border determined to reach a remote island that may hold the answers they've been seeking As they press deeper into the unknown the threat to the outside world becomes only more daunting The mysteries of Area X may have been solved but their consequences and implications are no less profound or terrifying

Authority Jeff VanderMeer, 2015-07-20 For thirty years the only human engagement with Area X has taken the form of a series of expeditions monitored by a secret agency called the Southern Reach After the disastrous twelfth expedition chronicled in Annihilation the Southern Reach is in disarray and John Rodriguez aka Control is the team's newly appointed head From a series of interrogations a cache of hidden notes and hours of profoundly troubling video footage the secrets of Area X begin to reveal themselves and what they expose pushes Control to confront disturbing truths about both himself and the agency he's promised to serve

Death by Landscape Elvia Wilk, 2022-07-19 From the acclaimed author of the novel Oval comes a book of fan nonfiction about living and writing in the age of extinction In this constellation of essays Elvia Wilk asks what kinds of narratives will help us rethink our human perspective toward Earth The book begins as an exploration of the role of fiction today and becomes a deep interrogation of the writing process and the self Wilk examines creative works across time and genre in order to break down binaries between dystopia and utopia real and imagined self and world She makes connections between works by such wide ranging writers as Mark Fisher Karen Russell Han Kang Doris Lessing Anne Carson Octavia E Butler Michelle Tea Helen Phillips Kathe Koja Jeff and Ann VanderMeer and Hildegard von Bingen What happens when research becomes personal when the observer breaks through the glass Through the eye of the fan this collection delves into literal and literary world building projects medieval monasteries solarpunk futures vampire role plays environments devoid of humans bridging the micro and the macro and revealing how our relationship to narrative shapes our relationships to the natural world and to one another

The Cross, the Plow and the Skyline Ernest J.

Yanarella,2022-03-01 The apocalyptic pastoral and urban traditions have fundamentally shaped Western history and influenced American religion culture and politics This book argues that these traditions have not only been decisive in giving form and substance to classic and modern American literature but have been appropriated by contemporary science fiction As a loosely connected set of cultural narratives the Cross the Plow and the Skyline have through the medium of science fiction and fantasy provided a bold vista on the future grounded in an emergent ecological imagination In the expanded second edition of the original 2001 publication the author argues that a significant shift has taken place in contemporary Anglo American science fiction and fantasy SF F from twentieth century SF F critically analyzed in the first edition s critical inquiry Avantgarde works in twenty first century speculative fiction extensively examined in representative works in interludes separating the slightly revised original chapters have become darker in their visions of the possible future more focused on slowness over breakneck speed more amenable to gender racial and global diversity in authorship plot and subgenre creation less attached to anchor concepts like the city wilderness and the domesticated landscape in plot development more prone to dystopian and critical dystopian tropes simultaneously more open toward but critical of Young Adult fiction and more supportive of the breakdown of borders and antagonisms between science fiction and fantasy and SF F and literary fiction Ensconced in the cultural social and political zeitgeist of the New Millennium s first two decades these features of twenty first century science fiction and fantasy may yet settle into and inform emergent and pluralistic varieties of ecological politics spreading across the globe and confronting the Earth s social and environmental crises of our times and coming decades The Cambridge Companion to Postmodern American Fiction Paula Geyh,2017-04-24 This Companion is an authoritative comprehensive and accessible guide to the key works genres and movements of postmodern American fiction I Hate the Lake District Charlie Gere,2019-10-08 An alternative view of the North West of England that delves into its stranger past I Hate the Lake District offers a different vision of the rural environment from those found in much contemporary nature writing Based on the author s trips around North West England the book engages with nuclear power and nuclear war slavery imperialism ghosts love God cockroaches and the sheer violence and contingency of nature itself of which the human presence is merely a part Each chapter starts with an account of a visit to a place in this remote part of England the deep north but digresses and wanders through multifarious themes and subjects Among the sites Gere visits are the defunct nuclear power station at Sellafield home of all British nuclear waste Lake Coniston where Donald Campbell died trying to break the water speed record Hadrian s Wall furthestmost reach of the Roman Empire the mysterious and deathly Morecambe Bay sites of slavery in the North West places where UFOs have been sighted avant garde artists created work and Islamic terrorists trained shantytowns where the navvies who built the railways lived with their families and even the remains of Blobbyland in Morecambe In I Hate the Lake District Gere challenges the bourgeois pastoralism of popular nature writing and reveals the landscape of North West England as profoundly unnatural and strange
