The contributors to this volume argue that participant observation is an embodied relational process mediated by emotions. If fieldwork is to attain its fullest potential, emotional reflexivity must complement the wider reflexive task of anthropologists. This makes particular demands on the training of anthropologists and the contributors to this volume propose new ways of practising emotional reflexivity such as radical empiricism that enhance anthropological knowledge. Emotions in anthropology are explored from a variety of methodological and theoretical standpoints drawing on fieldwork in Nepal, the UK, Taiwan, Russia, India, and the Philippines.

Revolutionizing Healthcare Experience With Digital Medical Tourism Hassan, Viana Imad, Singh, Amrik, Jaboo, Ali Said, Sorayaei Azar, Ali, 2025-03-19. The rise of digital technology in medical tourism is reshaping the way healthcare services are accessed globally, making it easier for patients to find and receive care from providers in different countries. By integrating digital platforms, telemedicine, and digital health records, the process of booking and receiving medical treatment abroad becomes more streamlined, increasing accessibility and convenience for patients. This also creates new opportunities for healthcare professionals to expand their reach while improving the patient experience through better communication and optimized services. However, challenges related to regulation, privacy, and language barriers remain, highlighting the need for effective strategies to manage this growing industry.

Revolutionizing Healthcare Experience With Digital Medical Tourism provides a thorough examination of the significance of digital orientation in the quickly changing field of medical tourism. It illuminates the potential advantages and difficulties associated with using digital marketing to promote medical tourism. Covering topics such as automatic diagnosis, patient privacy, and telemedicine, this book is an excellent resource for medical professionals, medical tourism agencies, digital health innovators, healthcare policymakers, entrepreneurs, academicians, researchers, and more.

List of Classes of United States Government Publications Available for Selection by Depository Libraries, 1999-04 Leviticus Johnson M. Kimuhu, 2008. Whereas many books in this field deal with individual aspects or texts of the study of family laws, Leviticus: The Priestly Laws and Prohibitions from the Perspective of Ancient Near East and Africa examines extensively biblical texts, ancient Near Eastern text, and oral traditions from Africa. Thus, three different cultures converge: the world of the Hebrew Bible, the world of the ancient Near East, and the world of Africa. This volume examines in detail the history of the development of ancient laws in general and family laws in particular, especially the laws relating to marriages between close relatives. Furthermore, Johnson M. Kimuhu looks at prohibitions and taboos in Africa and the problems they pose with regard to the interpretation and translation of difficult biblical concepts into African languages. In that sense, Kimuhu provides an example of how to contextualize or integrate African traditions into the study of biblical Hebrew, and he also offers insights into the current debate on the study of kinship from the point of view of social cultural anthropology and the Hebrew Bible legal system Teachers students and researchers in biblical studies ancient Near Eastern studies African traditions and social cultural
