Publication of the Handbook of Group Decision and Negotiation marks a milestone in the evolution of the group decision and negotiation GDN field. On this occasion editors Colin Eden and Marc Kilgour asked me to write a brief history of the field to provide background and context for the volume. They said that I am in a good position to do so. Actively involved in creating the GDN Section and serving as its chair, founding and leading the GDN journal Group Decision and Negotiation as editor in chief and the book series Advances in Group Decision and Negotiation as editor and serving as general chair of the GDN annual meetings, I accepted their invitation to write a brief history. In 1989 what is now the Institute for Operations Research and the Management Sciences INFORMS established its Section on Group Decision and Negotiation. The journal Group Decision and Negotiation was founded in 1992, published by Springer in cooperation with INFORMS and the GDN Section. In 2003, as an extension of the journal, the Springer book series Advances in Group Decision and Negotiation was inaugurated.
