What is the basic difference in orientation between financial and management accounting?

Management accounting is concerned with providing information to managers for their use internally in the organisation. Financial accounting is concerned with providing information to stockholders, creditors, and others outside of the organisation.

What are the three major activities of a manager?

Essentially, the manager carries out three major activities in an organisation: planning, directing and motivating, and controlling. All three activities involve decision making.

Describe the four steps in the planning and control cycle.

The Planning and Control Cycle involves the following steps: formulating plans, implementing plans, measuring performance, and evaluating differences between planned and actual performance.

Why do companies prepare budgets?
