Elwan, Mohamed R. Elsharouny

14 June Marking Scheme Zimsec:

Zimbabwe International Monetary Fund, 2011-06-14 Stronger policies favorable external environment and notable improvement in the humanitarian situation supported a nascent economic recovery in Zimbabwe Executive Directors welcomed this and urged authorities to take advantage of the favorable external environment to strengthen their macroeconomic framework They stressed the need to strengthen the fiscal position and expressed concern about rising vulnerabilities in the banking system They welcomed the authorities strategy for arrears clearance Directors agreed that the Staff Monitored Program SMP would help establish a track record of sound policies and encouraged the authorities to continue timely data reporting Zimbabwe's Fast Track Land Reform Prosper B. Matondi, 2012-11-08 The Fast Track Land Reform Programme in Zimbabwe has emerged as a highly contested reform process both nationally and internationally The image of it has all too often been that of the widespread displacement and subsequent replacement of various people agricultural related production systems facets and processes The reality however is altogether more complex Providing new and much needed empirical research this in depth book examines how processes such as land acquisition allocation transitional production outcomes social life gender and tenure have influenced and been influenced by the forces driving the programme It also explores the ways in which the land reform programme has created a new agrarian structure based on small to medium scale farmers In attempting to resolve the problematic issues the reforms have raised the author argues that it is this new agrarian formation which provides the greatest scope for improving Zimbabwe s agriculture and development Based on a broader geographical scope than any previous study carried out on the subject this is a landmark work on a subject of considerable controversy Migration, Crisis and Temporality at the Zimbabwe-South Africa Border Kudakwashe Vanyoro, 2024-02-29 Only 15 kilometres away from the border of Zimbabwe Musina is an obscure town in South Africa that the media cast into the public eye in the wake of the 2008 Zimbabwean economic crisis Taking as its starting point the arrival of thousands of displaced Zimbabwean migrants at Musina this book presents valuable new perspectives on the temporality of migration and the governance of immobilities The author explores the role of humanitarian actors in supporting migrants and examines the outcomes of government led activities in the longer term This is an insightful assessment of how state and non state practices intertwine in the management of largely immobile people and of the importance of time in understanding African migration and borders The Primacy of Regime Survival Mark Simpson, Tony Hawkins, 2018-05-02 This book analyses the past and ongoing decline of Zimbabwe under the rule of ZANU PF with a primary focus on the period 1997 to the present In contrast to much existing literature on post independence Zimbabwe which has focused on the political dimensions of Zimbabwe s fragility this research highlights the economic aspects of Zimbabwe s regression flowing from prolonged mismanagement of the economy which has served to consolidate the rule of the country s political and economic elite The Zimbabwean experience offers unique insights into the economic mensions of regime preservation This book situates the Zimbabwe experience within the context of wider debates within the field of development studies and the international community's response to such situations
