Davidson Frame, 2012-10-15 The economic crisis of 2008 2009 was a transformational event it demonstrated that smart people aren't as smart as they and the public think The crisis arose because a lot of highly educated people in high impact positions political power brokers business leaders and large segments of the general public made a lot of bad decisions despite unprecedented access to data highly sophisticated decision support systems methodological advances in the decision sciences and guidance from highly experienced experts

Sagas of Adolescence: Stories for Students SaSa Shaler, 2009-10-13 My fascination with teenagers began when I was nine and never entirely disappeared even after living through the teens myself even after having grown up enough to be thankful those years were behind me My early influences undoubtedly contributed to this as I grew up during the accent on youth culture of the late 1960s and the 1970s Much of my continuing fascination with the tumultuous state of adolescence the time of being neither a child nor an adult is linked to my livelihood I teach in an urban high school Thus I am surrounded by teens all the time I am a natural storyteller and when I decided to teach I chose a graduate school program in which storytelling was highly respected and encouraged as a teaching tool As a result storytelling became an integral part of my teaching strategy I have employed storytelling in every teaching position I have held My nieces and nephews have looked forward to Aunt SaSa myself telling stories since they were tiny Now the older ones are moving into adolescence As a loving aunt I want to be on the front lines of teaching them how to make good choices and to keep themselves safe from bad influences I have held teenage attention consistently by incorporating elements of my own adolescence into my stories I have stressed that it is okay to make a mistake because experience is the best and the toughest teacher I follow with the sentiment Try not to make the same mistake twice I do deal in fiction this is apparent to adults I grew up with who read my jaunty witticisms and follow the flawless judgment in my stories that they know for a fact I didn't have at that age Yet because there is a strong circle of love that exists for me I know they will never give my young audience that word to the wise about SaSa Study Max Lawrence J.
