

Universal Planning (UP)

This section describes the process of universal planning, which is the process of designing a building or facility that is accessible to all people, regardless of their physical abilities. The process involves a series of steps, including: identifying the needs of all users, developing a plan that meets those needs, and implementing the plan.

Design Process

The design process is the process of creating a design that meets the needs of all users. It involves a series of steps, including: identifying the needs of all users, developing a plan that meets those needs, and implementing the plan.
