Photography for Architects Martine Hamilton Knight, 2024-01-19 Shortlisted for the Architectural Book Awards 2024

We live in a world driven by images but with so much visual noise is anyone really looking How does an architect ensure their portfolio is within view of the right audience Photographs are still as vital to architectural practice as they ever were However creation and circulation once in the hands of skilled professionals is now perceived as being free and within easy reach of all But where is the clarity What is the message By setting out the case for curated image making considered photography may again be placed at the centre of architectural marketing strategies Photography for Architects guides the reader through various topics from establishing a visual brand and sharing images online to producing content in house and commissioning professionals It explores the still and moving image creating books and exhibitions for legacy value compiling award entries and engaging with trade press Little understood aspects regarding legal rights and obligations ethics copyright and licensing images for use are discussed in clear language Multiple photographic examples and conversations with international practitioners highlight the various themes throughout Written by a working architectural photographer whose life has been spent in commercial practice this easy to read richly illustrated guide is essential reading for architects and designers alike who are working with images and image makers

Century of the Child Juliet Kinchin, Aidan O'Connor, 2012 The book examines individual and collective visions for the material world of children from utopian dreams for the citizens of the future to the dark realities of political conflict and exploitation Surveying more than 100 years of toys clothing playgrounds schools children's hospitals nurseries furniture posters animation and books this richly illustrated catalogue illuminates how progressive design has enhanced the physical intellectual and emotional development of children and conversely how models of children's play have informed experimental aesthetics and imaginative design thinking
