Arctic Human Development Report:

Arctic Human Development Report Joan Nymand Larsen, Gail Fondahl, 2015-02-18 The goals of the second volume of the AHDR Arctic Human Development Report Regional Processes and Global Linkages are to provide an update to the first AHDR 2004 in terms of an assessment of the state of Arctic human development to highlight the major trends and changes unfolding related to the various issues and thematic areas of human development in the Arctic over the past decade and based on this assessment to identify policy relevant conclusions and key gaps in knowledge new and emerging Arctic success stories The production of AHDR II on the tenth anniversary of the first AHDR makes it possible to move beyond the baseline assessment to make valuable comparisons and contrasts across a decade of persistent and rapid change in the North It addresses critical issues and emerging challenges in Arctic living conditions quality of life in the North global change impacts and adaptation and Indigenous livelihoods The assessment contributes to our understanding of the interplay and consequences of physical and social change processes affecting Arctic residents quality of life at both the regional and global scales It shows that the Arctic is not a homogenous region Impacts of globalization and environmental change differ within and between regions between Indigenous and non Indigenous northerners between genders and along other axes Arctic Human Development Report Nordic Council of Ministers, 2014 Arctic Human Development Report United Nations. Development Programme, Arctic Social Indicators Gail Fondahl, 2010 Abstract This report is a result of and follow up to the Arctic Human Development Report AHDR which appeared in 2004 and had been conducted under the auspices of the Arctic Council's Sustainable Development Working Group SDWG The AHDR marked processes of maturation within the Arctic Council and beyond On the one hand the AHDR represented the first social science driven report prepared for the Arctic Council indicating that various stakeholders from politicians to Arctic residents understood the importance of the human dimension for sustainable development in the Arctic On the other hand the processes leading to the AHDR marked new developments in the relationship between Arctic governance and scholarship including coordinated support for the report from the Standing Committee of Parliamentarians of the Arctic Region SCPAR Arctic Oil and Gas Aslaug Mikkelsen, Oluf Langhelle, 2008-08-18 Pt 1 The Arctic context framework and methodology pt 2 Legal and institutional framework case studies pt 3 Comparisons and managerial implications SLiCA: Arctic living conditions Birger Poppel, 2015-02-24 The SLiCA anthology probes into the theoretical and methodological background of the SLiCA project the research design the ethical principles applied and introduces examples of the wealth of information available on the livelihoods and living conditions of the Inuit Saami and the indigenous peoples of Chukotka and the Kola Peninsula measured with quality of life criteria they themselves chose Furthermore the anthology provides samples of analyses including comparative and contextual studies that can be accomplished using SLiCA data Examples of living conditions and topics analysed are suicidal thoughts impacts of oil development on living conditions and quality of life economic stratification objective and subjective living conditions education gender based differences in productive activities impacts of societal development on men s and women s perceptions of their contributions to their households factors affecting migration identity ethnicity and herding rights Global Handbook of Quality of Life Wolfgang Glatzer,Laura Camfield,Valerie

Møller,Mariano Rojas,2015-01-22 This handbook provides a comprehensive historical account of the field of Quality of Life It brings together theoretical insights and empirical findings and presents the main items of global quality of life and wellbeing research Worldwide in its scope of topics the handbook examines discussions of demographic and health development the spread of democracy global economic accounting multi item measurement of perceived satisfaction and expert assessed quality of life and the well being of children women and poor people It looks at well being in specific regions including North and Sub Saharan Africa Asia South America and Eastern and Western Europe In addition to contributions by leading and younger authors the handbook includes contributions from International Organizations about their own work with respect to social reporting Globalization and the Circumpolar North Lassi Heininen,Chris Southcott,2010-05-15 The circumpolar north has long been the subject of conflicting national aspirations and border disputes and with the end of the cold war and the coming era of potential resource scarcity its importance will only grow over the next several decades Anticipating that renewed prominence Globalization and the Circumpolar North brings together an array of scholars to explore the effects of this increased attention from the new opportunities offered by globalization to the potential damage to long isolated northern communities and peoples New Chances and New Responsibilities in the Arctic Region Georg Witschel,2010-01-01 HauptbeschreibungThe Arctic in the 21st century is exposed to multiple challenges Global warming will have far reaching repercussions and thus will open up new opportunities The melting of the ice enables the exploitation of resources and the use of new shipping routes which were not accessible up to now However these opportunities require new responsibilities which have to be taken seriously These developments in the Arctic partake an increasing position in the international environmental discussion The present book contains a comprehensive analysis of the current problems

Polar Law Textbook Nordic Council of Ministers,2010 The idea for this textbook developed from the recognition of the need to disseminate information about Polar Law as an emerging field of legal studies an area of study long overdue greater recognition Developments in the Polar Regions the Arctic and Antarctica are now the subject of growing interest and importance They concern a divergent range of global and regional development issues and beg further inquiry into the role of law in dealing with many of these issues This textbook is the first educational material of its kind It attempts to illustrate the importance of legal values in addressing various challenges across the Nordic region among remote Arctic communities and globally The textbook focuses on the various developments in international and domestic law concerning the Polar Regions e g issues of environmental law law of the sea resources human rights law and Indigenous peoples rights etc By looking at linkages between different areas of law and the other social sciences the textbook also explores the relevant aspects of the economic social and political developments affecting both Polar areas e g questions of Polar governance economics and the political situation in some of the Arctic areas
