Merleau-Ponty for Architects Jonathan Hale,2016-07-01 The philosophy of Maurice Merleau Ponty 1908 1961 has influenced the design work of architects as diverse as Steven Holl and Peter Zumthor as well as informing renowned schools of architectural theory notably those around Dalibor Vesely at Cambridge Kenneth Frampton David Leatherbarrow and Alberto P rez G mez in North America and Juhani Pallasmaa in Finland Merleau Ponty suggested that the value of people s experience of the world gained through their immediate bodily engagement with it remains greater than the value of understanding gleaned through abstract mathematical scientific or technological systems This book summarizes what Merleau Ponty s philosophy has to offer specifically for architects It locates architectural thinking in the context of his work placing it in relation to themes such as space movement materiality and creativity introduces key texts helps decode difficult terms and provides quick reference for further reading

The Mathematics of the Modernist Villa Michael J. Ostwald,Michael J. Dawes,2018-04-12 This book presents the first detailed mathematical analysis of the social cognitive and experiential properties of Modernist domestic architecture The Modern Movement in architecture which came to prominence during the first half of the twentieth century may have been famous for its functional forms and machine made aesthetic but it also sought to challenge the way people inhabit understand and experience space Ludwig Mies van der Rohe's buildings were not only minimalist and transparent they were designed to subvert traditional social hierarchies Frank Lloyd Wright's organic Modernism not only attempted to negotiate a more responsive relationship between nature and architecture but also shape the way people experience space Richard Neutra's Californian Modernism is traditionally celebrated for its sleek geometric forms but his intention was to use design to support a heightened understanding of context Glenn Murcutt's pristine pavilions seemingly the epitome of regional Modernism actually raise important questions about the socio spatial structure of architecture Rather than focussing on form or style in Modernism this book examines the spatial social and experiential properties of thirty seven designs by Wright Mies Neutra and Murcutt The computational and mathematical methods used for this purpose are drawn from space syntax isovist geometry and graph theory The specific issues that are examined include the sensory and emotional appeal of space and form shifting social and spatial structures in architectural planning wayfinding and visual understanding and the relationship between form and program

Precedented Environmental Futures Colin Porteous, 2019-04-17 This book addresses the built environment through the lens of environmental architecture and in a holistic manner It moves gradually from psychophysiology and thinking doing feeling modalities through environmental criteria to environmental modulation concluding with a debate around mitigation and adaptation Much use is made of re interpreting past quotations seen as relevant for environmental architecture No definitive conclusions are reached but rather broad discursive messages are offered The text will have lasting luminance for new generations involved with the built environment

Drawing and Experiencing Architecture Marianna Charitonidou, 2022-11-07 How were the concepts of the observer and user in architecture and urban planning transformed throughout the 20th and 21st centuries Marianna Charitonidou explores how the mutations of the means of representation in architecture and urban planning relate to the significance of city's inhabitants She investigates Le Corbusier and Ludwig Mies van der Rohe's fascination with perspective Team Ten's interest in the humanisation of architecture and urbanism Constantinos Doxiadis and Adriano Olivetti's role in reshaping the relationship between politics and urban planning during the postwar years Giancarlo De Carlo's architecture of participation Aldo Rossi's design methods Denise Scott Brown's active socioplactics and Bernard Tschumi's conception praxis

Museum Configurations John Peponis, 2023-12-19 Museum Configurations demonstrates how museum space functions cognitively and communicatively and questions whether it can be designed to provide a rich embodied experience situating displays and their public in felicitous dialogue Including contributions from authors working in the disciplines of architecture psychology museum studies history and the visual arts this volume addresses an interdisciplinary audience The analysis of a wealth of examples shows how the voices of architects curators and exhibition designers enter into dialogue and invite visitors to make their own connections between physical cognitive and affective space Considering how the layout of museums facilitates movement and orientation so that visitors may devote their attention to displays the book questions what kinds of visual attention characterizes museum experiences and how the design of museum space can support them In the context of an often dematerialized atomized and dissipating contemporary culture the book proposes that museums can function as shared space that supports enjoyment and learning without being overly didactic Museum Configurations focuses upon the functions and aims of the design of space This makes the book particularly interesting to academics and students working in exhibition design and museum architecture as well as to exhibition designers curators and architects

Gated Luxury Condominiums in India Dhara Patel, 2024-06-17 Gated Luxury Condominiums in India A Socio Spatial Arena for New Cosmopolitans critically examines gated luxury condominiums in contemporary India exploring their role in shaping elite power and identity within the framework of neoliberalism It delves into the spatial structure perception and post occupancy experience of these enclaves offering valuable insights into India's urban development This book convincingly elucidates the complex socio spatial transformations underway in India inviting readers to understand the depth and breadth of these changes particularly within the rapidly expanding middle and upper middle classes It adopts a robust multi disciplinary approach combining methodologies such as spatial ethnography threshold mapping qualitative interviews and discourse analysis Focused on the architectural typology of luxury condominiums the study serves as a lens for broader social transformations grounded in case studies from Mumbai and Pune Through a meticulous dissection of the lived experiences of various categories of users owners visitors and service staff the book unveils the complex socio spatial hierarchies perpetuated within these enclaves Drawing on theories of cosmopolitanism and postcolonial critiques the monograph makes a significant scholarly contribution to the disciplines of architecture and the built environment It fills a gap in the existing literature on modern domesticity in India offering original research that highlights how architecture is instrumental in socially divisive practices of elite formation It will appeal to scholars researchers and students across disciplines like architecture landscape design spatial sociology urban studies and area studies focusing on India and South Asia It is particularly compelling for those interested in the sociocultural dynamics of the middle class encompassing themes such as domesticity material culture and spatial politics within the context of Indian condominiums
