

Animal rights

(opinion essay)

Some people believe that animals should be treated in the same way humans are and have similar rights, whereas others think that it is more important to use them as we desire, for food and medical research.

In my opinion, animal cruelty is an undeniable evil case, because like humans, animals need freedom too. Abusing animals means choosing to hurt them for no reason.

To begin with, people believe that the exploitation of animals is acceptable for several reasons. Firstly, they think that humans are the most important beings on the planet and everything must be done to ensure human survival. For instance, if a person beats an animal so badly that the animal happens to die nobody takes steps further so that someone is made responsible as people act when people are to suffer.

Secondly, it has been shown on numerous occasions by secret filming in laboratories, made by animal rights groups that animals feel as much pain as humans do, and they suffer when they are kept in cages for long periods. In addition, a substantial amount of animal research is done for cosmetics, to find cures for diseases, so this is unnecessary.

Thirdly, it has also been proved that humans can get all the nutrients and vitamins that they need from green vegetables and fruits. Therefore, again, having to kill animals for food is not an adequate argument.

To sum up, although some people argue killing animals for research and food is ethical, I would say there is sufficient evidence to demonstrate that this is not the case, and, therefore, steps must be taken to improve the rights of animals.

Writing Out of All the Camps Laura Wright, 2013-11-15 Writing Out of all the Camps J M Coetzee s Narratives of Displacement is an interdisciplinary examination combining ethical postcolonial performance gender based and environmental theory of the ways that 2003 Nobel Prize winning South African novelist J M Coetzee primarily through his voicing of a female subject position and his presentation of a voiceless subjectivity the animal displaces both the narrative and authorial voice in his works of fiction

Coetzee's work remains outside of conventional notions of genre by virtue of the free indirect discourse that characterizes many of his third person narrated texts that feature male protagonists Life Times of Michael K The Master of Petersburg and Disgrace various and differing first person narrative accounts of the same story Dusklands In the Heart of the Country the use of female narrators and female narrative personas Age of Iron The Lives of Animals and unlocatable ahistorical contexts Waiting for the Barbarians The work has broad academic appeal in the established fields of not only literary studies postcolonial contemporary postmodern and environmental but also in the realm of performance and gender studies Because of its broad and interdisciplinary range this text bridges a conspicuous gap in studies on Coetzee

Wild Animal Story Ralph Lutts, 2001-09-12 At the beginning of the twentieth century the wild animal story emerged in Canadian literature as a distinct genre in which animals pursue their own interests survival for themselves their offspring and perhaps a mate or the pure pleasure of their wildness Bringing together some of the most celebrated wild animal stories Ralph H Lutts places them firmly in the context of heated controversies about animal intelligence and purposeful behavior Widely regarded as entertaining and educational the early stories by Charles G D Roberts Ernest Thompson Seton John Muir Jack London and others had an avid readership among adults and children But some naturalists and at least one hunter Theodore Roosevelt discredited these writers as nature fakers accusing them of falsely portraying animal behavior The stories and commentaries collected here span the twentieth century As present day animal behaviorists psychologists and the public attempt to sort out the meaning of what animals do and our obligations to them Ralph Lutts maps some of the prominent features of our cultural landscape Tales include The Springfield Fox by Ernest

Thompson Seton The Sounding of the Call by Jack London Stickeen by John Muir Journey to the Sea by Rachel Carson Other selections include essays by Theodore Roosevelt John Burroughs Margaret Atwood and Ralph H Lutts postamble The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Victorian Women's Writing Lesa Scholl, Emily Morris, 2022-12-15 Since the late twentieth century there has been a strategic campaign to recover the impact of Victorian women writers in the field of English literature However with the increased understanding of the importance of interdisciplinarity in the twenty first century there is a need to extend this campaign beyond literary studies in order to recognise the role of women writers across the nineteenth century a time that was intrinsically interdisciplinary in approach to scholarly writing and public intellectual engagement
