Decolonial Animal Ethics in Linda Hogan's Poetry and Prose Małgorzata Poks,2023-07-28 Decolonial Animal Ethics in Linda Hogan s Poetry and Prose is a plea for an urgent redefinition of human animal relations on the basis of a nonanthropocentric animal ethic embraced by premodern Indigenous communities but depreciated by coloniality Without decolonial revisions of animal subjectivity and personhood the animal genocide can never truly stop It is also a close reading of Linda Hogan s poetry and prose in search of the coordinates of a decolonized animal ethic which would foster interspecies becoming Having defined the recurring tropes motifs and attitudes that underpin Hogan s treatment of nonhuman animals the book moves on to trace the way she depicts the human animal bond especially in the face of the destructive anthropogenic impact The major questions guiding the analysis of Hogan s oeuvre are as follows who are the animals we share our earthly lives with what can they teach us about ourselves how can animals guide us toward more sustainable futures and what are the conditions of possibility of an interspecies human animal thriving This book will be of interest to scholars and students of Indigenous Studies Decolonial Studies Animal Studies Ecocriticism Anthropocene Studies as well as readers of Linda Hogan s literary works

Romanticism and Modernity Thomas Pfau, Robert Mitchell, 2014-07-16 Though traditionally defined as a relatively brief time period typically the half century of 1780 1830 the Romantic era constitutes a crucial indeed unique transitional phase in what has come to be called modernity for it was during these fifty years that myriad disciplinary aesthetic economic and political changes long in the making accelerated dramatically Due in part to the increased velocity of change though most of modernity's essential master tropes such as secularization instrumental reason individual rights economic self interest emancipation system institution nation empire utopia and life were also subjected to incisive critical and methodological reflection and revaluation The chapters in this collection argue that Romanticism's marked ambivalence and resistance to decisive conceptualization arises precisely from the fact that Romantic authors simultaneously extended the project of European modernity while offering Romantic concepts as means for a sustained critical reflection on that very process Focusing especially on the topics of form both literary and organic secularization and its political correlates utopia and apocalypse and the question of how one narrates the arrival of modernity this collection collectively emphasizes the importance of understanding modernity through the lens of Romanticism rather than simply understanding Romanticism as part of modernity This book was previously published as a special issue of European Romantic Review

Experimental Life Robert Mitchell, 2013-12-16 Experimental Life establishes the multiple ways in which Romantic authors appropriated the notion of experimentation from the natural sciences Winner of the Michelle Kendrick Memorial Book Prize of the Society for Literature Science and the Arts BSL's Book Prize of the British Society for Literature and Science If the objective of the Romantic movement was nothing less than to redefine the meaning of life itself what role did experiments play in this movement While earlier scholarship has established both the importance of science generally and vitalism specifically with regard to Romanticism no study has investigated what it meant for artists to experiment and how those experiments related to their interest in the concept of life Experimental Life draws on approaches and ideas from contemporary science studies proposing the concept of experimental vitalism to show both how Romantic authors appropriated the concept of experimentation from the sciences and the impact of their appropriation on post Romantic
