Anna Halprin Dance Processes Forms:

Anna Halprin Ursula Schorn, Ronit Land, Gabriele Wittmann, 2014-09-21 This book considers the creative work and therapeutic and pedagogical approach of Anna Halprin a dancer choreographer and early pioneer in the expressive arts healing movement It looks at her Life Art Process and the wider impact of her work across the fields of art education therapy and politics Creation - Transformation - Theology Margit Eckholt, 2022 The social and cultural challenges posed by the increasing threat to creation climate change destruction of biodiversity etc are the starting point for new philosophical ethical and theological reflections on the relationship between God human beings and the world as presented in this volume God's creative impulse which transforms anew is at work in the actions of human beings and challenges us in view of the threat to the house of life earth to go new ways that make a common and good life possible Creation and transformation are interrelated an ecological theology of creation and practice of sustainability to be developed in the European context is to be embedded in the horizon of a global liberating theology Expressive Arts Education and Therapy Markus

Scott-Alexander, 2020-06-29 In Expressive Arts Education and Therapy the reader follows the creation of art making in tandem with the unfolding of sense making A dance theatre lab is the stage for exploration where what was discovered was phenomenologically and collaboratively reflected upon the participatory nature of the creative work pouring into the research methodology Creative Process based Research efficacy is contingent upon the interaction of three poles the creator the product and an experience of the internal external creative process of the creator All three perspectives comprise the dynamics required of this research methodology in order to understand what is occurring in these three distinct and essential elements of the creative process What results is an experience of cohesion that consciously describes this interplay The author outlines his influences that contributed to both the art making and sense making over the seven year research project His work in experimental theatre in New York as an educator with The European Graduate School in Switzerland and his studies with philosopher John de Ruiter in Canada are integrated into the world of research in the field of expressive arts The visceral component of creating clarity is uncovered and articulated This book inspires new ways of thinking about participatory collaborative arts centered research where the skill of exposing the artist researcher's modus operandi for making art and making sense is named in a myriad of ways that call upon the intellect as well as the artist's intuitive sense of what to focus on and its relevance to education therapy and global health Anna Halprin Libby Worth, Helen
