John Potts

Animation Genre And Authorship:

Animation Paul Wells, 2002 Wells provides an overview of the distinctive language of animation its production processes and the particular questions about who makes it under what conditions and with what purpose The Crash Controversy Martin Barker, Jane Arthurs, Ramaswami Harindranath, 2001 Between 1996-97 an almost unprecedented campaign was mounted in the British press against one film David Cronenberg's Crash What motivated this campaign What can it tell us about British film culture What impact did the campaign have on general audiences This book which draws on a year long investigation supported by the Economic and Social Research Council offers a series of important and challenging findings and is a major contribution to our understanding of censorship campaigns how audiences respond to films and the strategies employed in engaging with such texts The Near-Death of the Author John Potts, 2022-11-01 In the modern world of networked digital media authors must navigate many challenges Most pressing the illegal downloading and streaming of copyright material on the internet deprives authors of royalties and in some cases it has discouraged creativity or terminated careers Exploring technology's impact on the status and idea of authorship in today's world The Near Death of the Author reveals the many obstacles facing contemporary authors John Potts details how the online culture of remix and creative reuse operates in a post authorship mode with little regard for individual authorship The book explores how developments in algorithms and artificial intelligence AI have yielded novels newspaper articles musical works films and paintings without the need of human authors or artists It also examines how these AI achievements have provoked questions regarding the authorship of new works such as Does the author need to be human And more alarmingly Is there even a need for human authors Providing suggestions on how contemporary authors can endure in the world of data the book ultimately concludes that network culture has provoked the near death but not the death of the author Animation Journal, 2001

Contemporary British and Irish Film Directors Yoram Allon, Del Cullen, Hannah Patterson, 2001 The guide encompasses the careers of over 350 directors from the last 20 years A must for any film studies library it is a unique reference to the changing dynamics of these cinemas Animated Worlds Suzanne Buchan, David Surman, Paul Ward, 2006 Animated Worlds is an edited anthology of papers originally presented at the eponymous conference held in 2003 at Farnham Castle England The Illusion of Life 2 Alan Cholodenko, 2007 Collection of 16 essays on post World War II animation in Japan and the United States generated by The Life of Illusion Australia's second international conference on animation held in Sydney Mar 3-5 1995 The Animated Bestiary Paul Wells, 2009 The Animated Bestiary critically evaluates the depiction of animals in cartoons and animation more generally Paul Wells argues that artists use animals to engage with issues that would be more difficult to address directly because of political religious or social taboos Introduction to Film Studies Jill Nelmes, 2007 This is a comprehensive textbook for students of cinema It provides a guide to the main concepts used to analyse the film industry and film texts and also introduces some of the world's key national cinemas The Encyclopedia

Film and Philosophy Daniel Shaw, 2008 This introductory volume presents an overview of the philosophy of film a burgeoning sub discipline of Aesthetics It offers a sampling of paradigmatic instances of philosophers and philosophical film theorists discussing the movies in a fashion that takes cinema as seriously as any other Fine Art leaving little doubt that doing philosophy of film is a serious intellectual enterprise

Digital Encounters Aylish Wood, 2007 A cross media study of digital moving images in animation cinema games and installation art

Discourse, 2012 International Journal of Comic Art, 2005

Fantasy Cinema David Butler, 2009 Often dismissed as simple tales of sword and sorcery fantasy is one of the fundamental impulses in filmmaking a source of some of the most vivid and memorable films ever made that reaches far beyond the confines of a single genre As well as some of the major genres stylistic approaches and exponents of cinematic fantasy from Georges Melies Walt Disney and Andrei Tarkovsky to contemporary fantasists such as Terry Gilliam and Peter Jackson This volume focuses on fantasy s social function with case studies including The Thief of Baghdad 1924 Excalibur 1981 the Lord of the Rings trilogy 2001 03 and Bruce Almighty 2003 and interpretations Taking in the popular and the experimental subversive desires and reactionary dreams this book is an engaging introduction to one of the vital energies in cinema Book cover

The Other Helen Fielding, 2007-04-25 The western philosophical tradition with its focus on universal concepts and a presumed neuter but ultimately male subject has only relatively recently become open to the question of alterity in particular the alterity of woman as the other of man The essays of this volume reflect in particular on the ethical implications of taking the feminine other into account This necessitates a rethinking of the implicit structures of Western philosophy which continue to exclude women as subjects who contribute to the conceptualization of world and society This volume which gives voice to women philosophers is a contribution to that task

Visual Communication Paul Martin Lester, 2003 This is the only text to offer substantial coverage of issues specific to all forms of visual communication It helps students analyze visual messages using a technique similar to the one used to evaluate words It offers physiological and theoretical background on
