

The Reformation

Martin Luther, a monk from Wittenberg in Germany began to criticize the power and corruption of the Catholic church in 1517. Luther demanded reform of the church.

Some of Luther's criticisms of the church:

- Indulgences - paying for forgiveness

Pardoners, with permission from the Pope, travelled all across Europe selling Indulgences. They said all you had to do was buy one and you could pay for forgiveness - even for someone who had already died. You could buy a ticket to heaven!

- The Bible - only in Latin

Luther said it was unfair of the Pope to stop translations of the bible. Ordinary people couldn't read Latin. Luther said it was unfair because they had to rely on what their priest told them - they couldn't read it themselves!

Luther's supporters became known as Protestants. This was because they protested against the Church.

At first Henry VIII disagreed with Luther. He was worried that if people were prepared to attack the church, they might be prepared to attack the monarchy. However, when the Pope refused to grant Henry's divorce from Catherine of Aragon, Henry changed his mind.

In 1534, Henry made himself head of the Church in England. Henry was now hostile to people who remained loyal to the Pope. He demanded everyone was loyal to one person - HIM - not someone far away in Rome!

In 1535, Henry began arresting monks for high treason. Some monks were publicly tortured and beheaded, and several nuns were executed. In 1536, Henry granted permission for an English translation of the bible to be published, ordering that a copy should be placed in every church in England.

The Protestant Reformation

The Reformation spread throughout Europe and began in England when Henry VIII made himself head of the Church in 1534. The struggle between Protestants and Catholics over religious beliefs would not be easily solved in England or abroad.
