Unworking Jeremy Myerson, Philip Ross, 2022-09-26 As we look toward a future of hybrid or virtual offices a timely call to rethink the very nature and design of the workplace Over the past one hundred years the office has been integral to the development of modern society It has shaped the architecture of our cities the behavior of our organizations and the everyday movements of millions of people In 2020 however the global pandemic brought our attendance in the office to an abrupt halt and triggered a complete reevaluation of the purpose of the workplace This book offers a panoramic view of the office and explores what happens next The authors advance a manifesto for unworking unlearning old habits and rituals established for an outdated office and crafting and creating new ones fit for an age of digital technology design innovation and diverse workforces
