The possession or use of any communications device is strictly prohibited when taking this examination. If you have or use any communications device, no matter how briefly, your examination will be invalidated and no score will be calculated for you.

Print your name and the name of your school on the lines above. A separate answer sheet has been provided to you. Follow the instructions from the proctor for completing the student information on your answer sheet. Then fill in the heading of each page of your essay booklet.

This examination has three parts. You are to answer all questions in all parts. Use black or dark-blue ink to write your answers to Parts II and III.

Part I contains 28 multiple-choice questions. Record your answers to these questions as directed on the answer sheet.

Part II contains two sets of constructed-response questions (CRQ). Each constructed-response question set is made up of 2 documents accompanied by several questions. When you reach this part of the test, enter your name and the name of your school on the first page of this section. Write your answers to these questions in the examination booklet on the lines following these questions.

Part III contains one essay question based on five documents. Write your answer to this question in the essay booklet.

When you have completed the examination, you must sign the declaration printed at the end of the answer sheet, indicating that you had no unlawful knowledge of the questions or answers prior to the examination and that you have neither given nor received assistance in answering any of the questions during the examination. Your answer sheet cannot be accepted if you fail to sign this declaration.

DO NOT OPEN THIS EXAMINATION BOOKLET UNTIL THE SIGNAL IS GIVEN.

Maake, Albert Ong'uti, Maake, Benard
Magara, Awuor, Fredrick Mzee

Answer Key To The 2014 Global Regents:

The Corporation as a Protagonist in Global History, c. 1550-1750, 2018-12-10 William A Pettigrew and David Veevers put forward a new interpretation of the role Europe's overseas corporations played in early modern global history recasting them from vehicles of national expansion to significant forces of global integration Across the Mediterranean Atlantic Indian Ocean and Pacific corporations provided a truly global framework for facilitating the circulation movement and exchange between and amongst European and non European communities bringing them directly into dialogue often for the first time Usually understood as imperial or colonial commercial enterprises The Corporation as a Protagonist in Global History reveals the unique global sociology of overseas corporations to provide a new global history in which non Europeans emerged as key stakeholders in European overseas enterprises in the early modern world Contributors include Michael D Bennett Aske Laursen Brock Liam D Haydon Lisa Hellman Leonard Hodges Emily Mann Simon Mills Chris Nierstrasz Edgar Pereira Edmond Smith Haig Smith and Anna Winterbottom

The Pursuit of Human Well-Being Richard J. Estes, M. Joseph Sirgy, 2017-01-09 This handbook informs the reader about how much progress we the human race have made in enhancing the quality of life on this planet Many skeptics focus on how the quality of life has deteriorated over the course of human history particularly given World War II and its aftermath This handbook provides a positive perspective on the history of well being Quality of life as documented by scientists worldwide has significantly improved Nevertheless one sees more improvements in well being in some regions of the world than in others Why This handbook documents the progress of well being in the various world regions as well as the differences in those regions The broad questions that the handbook addresses include What does well being mean How do different philosophical and religious traditions interpret the concept of well being within their own context Has well being remained the same over different historical epochs and for different regions and subregions of the world In which areas of human development have we been most successful in advancing individual and collective well being In which sectors has the attainment of well being proven most difficult How does well being differ within and between different populations groups that for a variety of socially created reasons have been the most disadvantaged e g children the aged women the poor racial ethnic and sexual minorities

Africa in Global History Toyin Falola, Mohammed Bashir Salau, 2021-12-06 This handbook places emphasis on modern contemporary times and offers relevant sophisticated and comprehensive overviews It aims to emphasize the religious economic political cultural and social connections between Africa and the rest of the world and features comparisons as well as an interdisciplinary approach in order to examine the place of Africa in global history This book makes an important contribution to the discussion on the place of Africa in the world and of the world in Africa An outstanding work of scholarship it powerfully demonstrates that Africa is not marginal to global concerns Its labor and resources have made our world and the continent deserves our respect Mukhtar Umar Bunza Professor of Social History Usmanu Danfodiyo University Sokoto and Commissioner for Higher Education Kebbi State Nigeria This is a deep plunge into the critical place of Africa in global history The handbook blends a rich set of important tapestries and analysis of the conceptual framework of African diaspora histories imperialism and globalization By foregrounding the authentic voices of African interpreters of transnational interactions and exchanges the Handbook demonstrates a genuine commitment to the promotion of decolonized and indigenous knowledge on African continent and its peoples Samuel Oloruntoba Visiting Research Professor Institute of African Studies Carleton University

Environmentalism of the Rich Peter Dauvergne, 2016-09-23 Global Environmental Politics overviews The Story of Work Jan Lucassen, 2021-07-27 The first truly global history of work an upbeat assessment from the age of the hunter gatherer to the present day We work because we have to but also because we like it from hunting gathering over 700 000 years ago to the present era of zoom meetings humans have always worked to make the world around them serve their needs Jan Lucassen provides an inclusive history of humanity s busy labor throughout the ages Spanning China India Africa the Americas and Europe Lucassen looks at the ways in which humanity organizes work in the household the tribe the city and the state He examines how labor is split between men women and children the watershed moment of the invention of money the collective action of workers and at the impact of migration slavery and the idea of leisure From peasant farmers in the first agrarian societies to the precarious existence of today s gig workers this surprising account of both cooperation and subordination at work throws essential light on the opportunities we face today What Is Global Studies? Manfred Steger, Amentahru Wahlrab, 2016-11-10 What is Global Studies and how does it relate to globalization Responding to this frequently asked question Manfred B Steger and Amentahru Wahlrab provide the first comprehensive overview of this emerging field Authoritative and accessible this primer speaks to students and instructors interested not only in key theories but also in applied teaching and learning programs designed to educate global citizens to meet the concrete challenges of the twenty first century Linking the influential arguments of major thinkers in Global Studies to their own framework the authors discuss the Four Pillars of Global Studies globalization transdisciplinarity space and time and critical thinking The book with instructive appendix materials will appeal to readers seeking a deeper understanding of Global Studies one of the most popular fields of study in major universities around the world Carbon Societies Peter Wagner, 2024-05-30 The climate crisis is humanmade Its main cause is the burning of fossil fuels To combat climate change we have to understand how we arrived at where we are This book explores the reasons why human societies have embarked on the trajectory of ever increasing use of fossil fuels Population growth desire for freedom from want and profit seeking all played major roles in shaping human history but there has been no inevitable drive towards heating up the atmosphere in the pursuit of social objectives To sustain a growing population more natural resources are required but their use does not need to generate climate change No logic of modernity links freedom with a kind of material abundance that requires the burning of fossil fuels No logic of capital necessarily ties the search for profit to the extraction of fossil resources Examining the critical junctures in human history when resource regimes changed this book identifies the social problems that were meant to be solved by burning fossil fuels and the power hierarchies that shaped the decisions to use them Wagner argues that the key choices that led to the climate emergency were made relatively recently during the second half of the 20th century they are close enough in time for us to undo the prevailing social logic of fossil fuels By redefining the key problems that humankind is facing and reshaping the existing mechanisms of power we can take the decisive action needed to reduce our dependence on fossil fuels and avert the worst consequences of climate change
