The Times Index, 2008 Indexes the Times and its supplements Southern Africa After Zimbabwe Alex Callinicos, 1981
Land and Agrarian Reform in Zimbabwe Sam Moyo, Walter Chambati, 2013 The Fast Track Land Reform Programme implemented during the 2000s in Zimbabwe represents the only instance of radical redistributive land reforms since the end of the Cold War It reversed the racially skewed agrarian structure and discriminatory land tenures inherited from colonial rule The land reform also radicalised the state towards a nationalist introverted accumulation strategy against a broad array of unilateral Western sanctions Indeed Zimbabwe's land reform in its social and political dynamics must be compared to the leading land reforms of the twentieth century which include those of Mexico Russia China Japan South Korea Taiwan Cuba and Mozambique The fact that the Zimbabwe case has not been recognised as vanguard nationalism has much to do with the intellectual structural adjustment which has accompanied neoliberalism and a hostile media campaign This has entailed dubious theories of neopatrimonialism which reduce African politics and the state to endemic corruption patronage and tribalism while overstating the virtues of neoliberal good governance Under this racist repertoire it has been impossible to see class politics mass mobilisation and resistance let alone believe that something progressive can occur in Africa This book comes to a conclusion that the Zimbabwe land reform represents a new form of resistance with distinct and innovative characteristics when compared to other cases of radicalisation reform and resistance The process of reform and resistance has entailed the deliberate creation of a tri modal agrarian structure to accommodate and balance the interests of various domestic classes the progressive restructuring of labour relations and agrarian markets the continuing pressures for radical reforms through the indigenisation of mining and other sectors and the rise of extensive albeit relatively weak producer cooperative structures The book also highlights some of the resonances between the Zimbabwean land struggles and those on the continent as well as in the South in general arguing that there are some convergences and divergences worthy of intellectual attention The book thus calls for greater endogenous empirical research which overcomes the pre occupation with failed interpretations of the nature of the state and agency in Africa Zimbabwe's Fight To The Finish Moore, 2016-04-15 This book challenges the Western interpretation that poor governance under President Mugabe is the sole cause of the Zimbabwean crisis It considers inherited and highly unequal colonial structures and the impoverishing impact of an IMF and World Bank The Official Index to The Times, 1968 Index with coverage from 1906 to 1980 Forty Years of Sport and Social Change, 1968-2008 Russell Field, Bruce Kidd, 2013-09-13 1968 was a year of protest in civil society Prague Paris Chicago and a year of protest in sport After a world wide campaign the anti apartheid movement succeeded in barring South Africa from the Olympic Games while US athletes from the Olympic Project for Human Rights used the medals podium to decry the racism of North America Meanwhile students in Mexico demonstrated against social priorities in Mexico the host of the 1968 Games These events contributed significantly to the rejection of the idea that sports are apolitical and stimulated the scholarly study of sport across the social sciences Leading up to the Beijing Olympic Games similar dynamics were played out across the globe while a campaign was underway to boycott the Genocide Olympics The volume To Remember is to Resist came out of a three day conference on sports human rights and social change hosted by the University of Toronto forty years after Mexico and eighty days before the Beijing Opening Ceremony The contributions to this volume capture the memories of activists who were on the ground using sport as a site for the struggle for human rights and provide scholarly examinations of past and current human rights movements in sport This book was previously published as a special issue of Sport in Society The Official Index to the Financial Times ,2003 The Zimbabwe Science News ,2000

why these instances occur and why specific forms of abuse are more prevalent than others It also discusses how to prevent abuse and violations from happening in the first place and creating a culture of change and accountability Finally taking into account cultural and legal systems from troops home countries the author considers the ways that local rules can be aligned with international standards In will be of interest to researchers in Criminology and Criminal Justice International Relations Sociology and Demography Public Health Comparative Law and other related disciplines Macroeconomic Policy
