Process Engineering Renewal 1 Éric Schaer, Jean-Claude André, 2020-06-16 Process engineering emerged at the beginning of the 20th Century and has become an essential scientific discipline for the matter and energy processing industries Its success is incontrovertible with the exponential increase in techniques and innovations Rapid advances in new technologies such as artificial intelligence as well as current societal needs sustainable development climate change renewable energy the environment are developments that must be taken into account in industrial renewal Process Engineering Renewal 1 the first volume of three focuses on training demonstrating the need for innovation in order for the field to have a framework that is sustainable in a highly changeable world The Transformative Power of Language Russell H. Kaschula, H. Ekkehard Wolff, 2020-09-10 A new study of the importance of language for sociocultural change in Africa from postcolonial to globally competitive knowledge societies Technical and Vocational Teaching in South Africa Reuben Dlamini, Ian Moll, Vasidevan Naiker, 2024-07-23 This book unpacks the notion of pedagogy in South African technical and vocational education and training TVET enhancing the importance of the psychological dimension of learning The book is premised on the idea that as stories of actual grounded teaching and learning practices emerge from South African colleges a coherent picture of pedagogy can be established With chapters by practising TVET educators writing about their own work the volume seeks to reconceptualise vocational teaching and learning processes with diversity and inclusivity in mind The book will be of interest to students and scholars of TVET and education in South Africa as well as South African college practitioners and policymakers Inclusive Education in South African Further and Higher Education Tsedis Michael Makoele, Cina P. Mosito, 2025-05-26 A historical overview of the evolution of inclusive education alongside the emergence of concepts such as of equity and access highlighting how these ideas have evolved been enacted and practiced in the higher education institutions HEIs of South Africa since 2001 Decolonisation in Universities Jonathan Jansen, 2019-04-01 In this collection of case studies and stories from the field South African scholars come together to trade stories on how to decolonise the university Shortly after the giant bronze statue of Cecil John Rhodes came down at the University of Cape Town student protestors called for the decolonisation of universities It was a word hardly heard in South Africa s struggle lexicon and many asked What exactly is decolonisation This edited volume brings together the best minds in curriculum theory to address this important question In the process several critical questions are raised Is decolonisation simply a slogan for addressing other pressing concerns on campuses and in society What is the colonial legacy with respect to curriculum and can it be undone How is the project of curriculum decolonisation similar to or different from the quest for postcolonial knowledge indigenous knowledge or a critical theory of knowledge What does decolonisation mean in a digital age where relationships between knowledge and power are shifting The book combines strong conceptual analyses with novel case studies of attempts to do decolonisation in settings as diverse as South Africa Uganda Tanzania and Mauritius

Such a comparative perspective enables reasonable judgements to be made about the prospects for institutional take up within the curriculum of century old universities
