The Impact of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women on the Domestic Legislation in Egypt Nora Salem, 2017-12-05

By virtue of ratifying the Women's Convention Egypt is internationally obliged to eliminate gender discrimination in its domestic legislation Yet women in Egypt face various forms of discrimination This may legally be justified through Sharia based reservations which many Muslim majority countries enter to human rights treaties to evade an obligation of implementation where Human Rights run counter to Sharia This book examines the compatibility of Sharia based reservations with international law and identifies discrepancies between Sharia and domestic law in order to determine rights Egyptian women are entitled to according to Sharia and yet denied under Egyptian law Account is moreover given to Egypt's implementation efforts in the non reserved areas of law To this end Egypt's 2014 Constitution and four areas of statutory law are examined as case studies namely female genital mutilation human trafficking nationality and labor law

Visions of Avant-Garde Film Kamila Kuc, 2016-12-12 Warsaw and London based filmmakers Franciszka and Stefan Themerson are often recognized internationally as pioneers of the 1930s Polish avant garde Yet from the turn of the century to the end of the 1920s Poland's literary and art scenes were also producing a rich array of criticism and early experiments with the moving image that set the stage for later developments in the avant garde In this comprehensive and accessible study Kamila Kuc draws on myriad undiscovered archival sources to tell the history of early Polish avant garde movements Symbolism Expressionism Futurism and Constructivism and to reveal their impact on later practices in art cinema

Tutankhamun and Carter Rogerio Sousa, Gabriele Pieke, Tine Bagh, 2024-08-15 First scholarly multi disciplinary re assessment of Howard Carter's discovery and excavation of Tutankhamun's tomb and the impact of the find on our understanding of the material culture of Ancient Egypt The discovery of the tomb of Tutankhamun in 1922 stands out as one of the most important finds of modern archaeology revealing an enormous wealth of objects encapsulating techniques vestiges of uses and re uses of materials as well as unrivalled clues regarding the complex set of beliefs associated with the pharaonic funerary material culture Once cleared from the tomb these objects have captivated the world with their irresistible charm and beauty ending up playing a role in contemporary popular culture However it seems that such magnetism rather hindered than facilitated the scholarly study of the find One hundred years after the discovery of this magnificent tomb most of its objects remain insufficiently studied to this day This volume aims to show how it remains challenging to study Tutankhamun's objects gathering a collection of studies authored by leading scholars on conservation materials funerary beliefs as well as the reception of motifs and the impact of the discovery Through these studies it becomes clear how ancient objects can help us reconstruct the complex fabric of the ancient Egyptian society and how they keep interacting with modern audiences

The Oxford Handbook of Approaches to Language Evolution Limor Raviv, Cedric Boeckx, 2025-04-11 This handbook provides a detailed account of the many methodological tools and approaches used in the field of language evolution The field has seen a rapid growth over the last decade with a greater focus on empirical data and interdisciplinary syntheses This volume aims to make sense of these recent developments to provide a clear map of the current research landscape and to showcase some of the most important advances Each chapter highlights a particular methodology and outlines a question or set of questions that can be addressed using that methodology illustrated by a key example from the recent literature The volume is divided into three parts Part I showcases the many ways in which humans can shed light on the evolution of language when placed in specific experimental settings as well as discussing the use of clinical genetic observational and historical data Part II is devoted to simulations and models that enable the careful control of biases mechanisms and environments while Part III revolves around the idea that the study of non human animals can provide valuable insights into the evolution of human language The handbook as a whole demonstrates that multiple complementary approaches are necessary to do justice to the complexity of language evolution

The Theoretical Individual Michael Charles Tobias, Jane Gray Morrison, 2018-01-03 How can the one influence the many From posing seminal questions about what comprises a human individual to asking whether human evolution is alive and well favoring individuals or the species this work is a daring up to the minute overview of an urgent multidisciplinary premise It explores the extent to which human history provides empirical evidence for the capacity of an individual to exert meaningful suasion over their species and asks Can an individual influence the survival of the human species and the planet If there are to be cultures of transformation dedicated to seeing us all through the Sixth Extinction Spasm the Anthropocene inflicting as little biological havoc as possible what might such orientations a collective widespread biophilia or reverence for nature look like In this powerful work with a combination of data and direct observation the authors invite readers to explore how such transformations might resonate throughout the human community in what ways a person might overcome the seemingly insurmountable environmental tumult our species has unleashed the clear and salient motives ethics aspirations and pragmatic idealism he she might mirror and embrace in order to effect a profound difference at the individual level for all of life and life's myriad habitats Chapters illuminate an ambitiously broad digest of research from two dozen disciplines Those include ecodynamics biosemiotics neural plasticity anthropology paleontology and the history of science among others All converge upon a set of ethics based scenarios for mitigating ecological damage to ourselves and other life forms This highly readable and tightly woven treatise speaks to scientists students and all those who are concerned about ethical activism and the future of the biosphere Michael Charles Tobias and Jane Gray Morrison are ecological philosophers and animal liberation activists who have worked for decades to help enrich our understanding of ecosystem dynamics and humanity's ambiguous presence amid that great orchestra that is nature
