An innovative three hundred year exploration of the social and political contexts of science and the scientific imagination in South Africa      Xhosa and Russian Folktales Bertie Neethling, 2019-07-26 The purpose of this publication is to indicate that Xhosa iintsomi folktales are structured in such a way that many links or commonalities emerge when a comparison between tales is made Orally transmitted literary forms had to endure much prejudice and were often not considered worthy of study However in many different cultures all over the world the concept of oral literature and its functioning still exists There are various forms of oral literature but one of the best known is the folktale Folklorist and formalist Vladimir Propp 1895 1970 aimed to describe the story structure of Russian folktales according to a linear sequence of the acts of the characters Using one hundred folktales he illustrated how the storylines of these tales are remarkably similar identical actions are often performed only by different characters The somewhat surprising and obvious links between Propp s material and Xhosa iintsomi prompted the choice of Propp s model as the departure point for this comparative study Forty five Xhosa folktales were chosen because of their literary quality and suitability to Propp s methodology as a tool to organise the Xhosa data on the grounds of structural features that characterise this genre      Sol Plaatje's Mhudi Sabata-mpho Mokae, Brian Willan, 2021 Sol Plaatje s Mhudi is the first full length novel in English to have been written by a black South African and is widely regarded as one of South Africa s most important literary works Set in the 1830s it tells the tale of Mhudi and Ra Thaga a romantic story set against a violent backdrop of war between Barolong and Matebele complicated by the intrusions of Boer trekkers with whom the Barolong form an alliance It is notable among other things for the way Plaatje uses the past to explore the roots of the oppression and injustice suffered by his people a century later when the book was written Page 4 of cover      Paradise Lost , 2022-06-13 Paradise Lost Race and Racism in Post apartheid South Africa is about the continuing salience of race and persistence of racism in post apartheid South Africa The chapters in the volume illustrate the multiple ways in which race and racism are manifested and propose various strategies to confront racial inequality racism and the power structure that underpins it while exploring how through a renewed commitment to a non racial society apartheid racial categories can be put under erasure at exactly the time they are being reinforced      Mixed Legal Systems, East and West Professor Mohamed Mattar, Professor Vernon Palmer, Ms Anna Koppel, 2015-01-28 This book takes us far beyond the usual focus of comparative law with analysis of a broad range of jurisdictions including mixtures of common and civil law and also those mixing Islamic and or traditional legal systems with those derived from common and or civil law traditions The discussion is situated within the broader context of the continuing tides of globalization the emergence of Islamic governments in some parts of the Middle East the calls for a legal status for Islamic law in some European countries and the increasing focus on traditional and customary norms of governance in post colonial contexts
