Applications For Nurse Training In Baragwanath Hospital:

Baragwanath Hospital, Soweto Simonne Horwitz, 2013-09-01 Baragwanath Hospital Soweto illustrates how this rapidly growing underfunded but surprisingly effective institution found the niche that allowed it to exist to provide medical care to a massive patient body and at times even to flourish in the apartheid state The book offers new ways of exploring the history of apartheid apartheid medicine and health care The long history of Chris Hani Baragwanath Hospital its full current name or Bara as it is popularly known has been shaped by a complex set of conditions Established in the early 1940s Bara stands on land purchased by the Cornish immigrant John Albert Baragwanath in the late nineteenth century He set up a refreshment post trading store and hotel on the site in what is now Soweto which was a one day journey by ox wagon from Johannesburg The hotel became affectionately known as Baragwanath Place the surname is Welsh from bara meaning bread and gwenith meaning wheat The land was then bought by Corner House Mining Group and later taken over by Crown Mines Ltd but was never mined The British government bought the land in the early 1940s to build a military hospital but by 1947 Baragwanath ceased to operate as a military hospital and under the auspices of the Transvaal Provincial Administration a civilian hospital was opened with 480 beds Patients were transferred from the non European wing of the Johannesburg General Hospital in the white area of Johannesburg Links were immediately forged with the University of the Witwatersrand and Bara would over time become one of its largest teaching centres This link brought medical students and their teachers into direct contact with apartheid in the medical sphere This book will contribute to studies of the history of apartheid that have begun to provide a more nuanced account of its workings The history of Baragwanath and of the doctors and nurses who worked there tells us much about apartheid ideology and practice as well as resistance to it in the realm of health care

Hospital and Nursing Year Book of Southern Africa, 1959 Health and Healing South Africa. Department of Information, 1969 Report on health service facilities for Africans Asians and other coloured tribal peoples in South Africa R Statistical tables Rising to the Challenge of Change T. G. Mashaba, 1995 This text gives an account of the course charted by black nurses in South Africa as they rose to the challenge of a foreign Western system of nurse education and training It records the professional and academic advances made by an indigenous people in this field within a relatively short time Diversity and Division in Medicine Anne Digby, 2006 This is an innovative investigation of pluralism in health care Using both extensive archival material and oral histories it examines relationships between indigenous healing missionary medicine and western biomedicine The book includes the different regions within South Africa although focusing in most detail on the Cape the earliest area of white settlement In a wide ranging survey the division in medicine between western and indigenous medicine is analysed through an exploration of the evolving practices of healers missionaries doctors and nurses The book considers the extent to which there was a strategic crossing of boundaries in the construction of hybrid practices by these practitioners and the extent to which patients pursued health by sampling diverse care options Starting with missionary penetration

during the early nineteenth century the volume outlines interventions by the colonial state in medicine and public health and the continued resilience of indigenous healing in the face of this The book ends by relating past to present in scrutinising the legacy of historical structures including those of the apartheid state for current health care and in briefly discussing the huge challenges that the HIV Aids pandemic poses in impacting on them The book thus provides an inclusive history of medicine for the New South Africa Bantoe-onderwysblad ,1970 SAMJ ,2007 A Self-fulfilling Prophecy Simon Stewart,2007-04-04 To date non medical researchers particularly those working in nursing and allied health have suffered from a general lack of good strategic advice on how to build their careers Designed to assist readers in building their careers A Self fulfilling Prophecy Building a Successful Career in Health Research is a fascinating insight into author Simon Stewart s career as a health researcher Using his unique experiences as a basis for the book Stewart helps identify and overcome the many different obstacles of building an effective career framework The book breaks down the key to a successful career in health research through a systematic analysis of how you can improve your curriculum vitae and positively influence external factors that will determine the eventual success of your career PhD candidates and Post Doctoral Fellows provide insights into how they have developed their own research careers thus providing evidence that it is possible to achieve something substantive if you are able to think and judge your career in a critical manner A Self fulfilling Prophecy Building a Successful Career in Health Research offers guidance on the following issues How to choose an attractive research topic How to benchmark yourself against peer competitors How to compose a competitive research grant application How to improve your overall skills as a health research How to break the mould and stand out as a health researcher This book will be a useful and informative read for anyone who is starting a career in both non medical and medical health research or for readers who are looking for direction and inspiration in their existing career Symposia on South Africa Roodepoort-Maraisburg Rotary Club,1963 Cumulated Index Medicus ,1995
