Formal and Informal Strategic Planning Daniel Ebner, 2013-12-09

Previous research focused either on the relationship between strategic planning and performance or coordination mechanisms and performance Therefore a conceptually and empirically validated understanding of the interaction between these three factors is limited This study addresses this gap in the literature by delivering three contributions to theory and empirical research firstly by clarifying and proposing the influences of strategic planning and strategic organization on the performance secondly by developing a model and associated hypotheses on both direct and interaction effects of strategic planning and coordination mechanisms and thirdly by testing the hypotheses Findings regarding strategic planning suggest the coexistence of formal and informal strategic planning activities Furthermore results show that the relationship between strategic planning and performance is moderated by coordination mechanisms
