Utilisation of South African Research on Higher Education Jan Botha ,Gabriele Vilyte, 2021-10-26 The relationship between research on the one hand and policy practice on the other hand is complicated and collaboration between scholars in research on higher education RHE and institutional research IR practitioners is often lacking This book marks a collaborative effort of a diverse range of South African RHE and IR scholars and asks the overarching questions What do we know about the utilisation of South African research on higher education SARHE and its subset of research known as Institutional Research How and by whom is this research used The book begins by looking at the historical underpinnings of SARHE and delineating the shape and size of this body of research This is followed by a series of case studies on South African Higher Education institutions and governmental bodies investigating how when and by whom are research on higher education and institutional research used in the decision making of these organisations This book is the first of its kind in South Africa and sets out to lay the groundwork for further research into the use uptake and utilisation of RHE and IR in this country ECRM2016-Proceedings of the 15th European Conference on Research Methodology for Business Management " Vladlena Benson,Fragkiskos Filippaios,2016-05-20

Universities as Living Labs for Sustainable Development Walter Leal Filho,Amanda Lange Salvia,Rudi W. Pretorius,Luciana Londero Brandli,Evangelos Manolas,Fatima Alves,Ulisses Azeiteiro,Judy Rogers,Chris Shiel,Arminda Do Paco,2019-04-30 This book fills an important gap in the literature and presents contributions from scientists and researchers working in the field of sustainable development who have engaged in dynamic approaches to implementing sustainability in higher education It is widely known that universities are key players in terms of the implementation and further development of sustainability with some having the potential of acting as living labs in this rapidly growing field Yet there are virtually no publications that explore the living labs concept as it relates to sustainability and in an integrated manner The aims of this book which is an outcome of the 4th World Symposium on Sustainable Development at Universities WSSD U 2018 held in Malaysia in 2018 are as follows i to document the experiences of universities from all around the world in curriculum innovation research activities and practical projects as they relate to sustainable development at the university level ii to disseminate information ideas and experiences acquired in the execution of projects including successful initiatives and good practice iii to introduce and discuss methodological approaches and projects that seek to integrate the topic of sustainable development in the curricula of universities and iv to promote the scalability of existing and future models from universities as living labs for sustainable development The papers are innovative cross cutting and many reflect practice based experiences some of which may be replicable elsewhere Also this book prepared by the Inter University Sustainable Development Research Programme IUSDRP and the World Sustainable Development Research and Transfer Centre WSD RTC reinforces the role played by universities as living labs for sustainable development A Handbook on Legal Languages and the Quest for Linguistic Equality in South Africa and Beyond Zakeera Docrat,Russell H Kaschula ,Monwabisi K Ralarala,2021-06-02 A Handbook on Legal Languages and the Quest for Linguistic Equality in South Africa and Beyond is an interdisciplinary publication located in the discipline of forensic linguistics language and law This handbook includes varying comparative African and global case studies on the use of language s in courtroom discourse and higher education institutions Kenya Morocco Nigeria Australia

Belgium Canada and India These African and global case studies form the backdrop for the critique of the monolingual English language of record policy for South African courts the core of this handbook discussed in relation to case law and the beleaguered legal interpretation profession This handbook argues that linguistic transformation and decolonisation of South Africa s legal and higher education systems needs to be undertaken where legal practitioners are linguistically equipped to litigate in a bilingual multilingual courtroom that enables access to justice for the majority of African language speaking litigants enforcing their constitutional language rights
