Year of Fire, Year of Ash Baruch Hirson, 2016-06-15 We can say without fear of being contradicted by history that June 16 1976 heralded the beginning of the end of the centuries old white rule in this country Nelson Mandela Originally banned on publication by the apartheid government Year of Fire Year of Ash is an eye opening account of how in June 1976 20 000 school students faced down the tanks and guns of a vicious racist regime in a revolt that galvanized the black working class and became a pivotal turning point for the anti apartheid movement More than this the book overturns much of the conventional logic that served to explain the event at the time showing it was not simply a student protest but part of a wider uprising Released in this new edition to mark the fortieth anniversary Year of Fire Year of Ash provides an unparalleled insight into the origins and events of the uprising from its antecedents in the 1920s to its role in inspiring global solidarity against apartheid As South Africa experiences a new wave of popular discontent and as new forms of black consciousness come to the fore in movements around the world Baruch Hirson's book provides a timely reminder of the Soweto revolt's continued significance to struggles against oppression today

Literary Connections Between South Africa and the Lusophone World Ludmylla

Lima, John T. Maddox IV, Anita De Melo, 2022-10-12 Literary Connections between South Africa and the Lusophone World connects literatures and cultures of South Africa and the Portuguese speaking nations of Africa and beyond and is set within literary and cultural studies. The chapters gathered in this volume reinforce the critical and ongoing conversations in comparative and world literature from perspectives of the South. It outlines some possible theoretical and methodological starting points for a comparative framework that targets transnationally literatures from the South. This volume is an additional step to renew the critical potentialities of comparative literary studies Spivak 2009 as well as of humanistic criticism itself Said 2004 as South Africa and the Lusophone world except its former colonizer Portugal are outside the spatial and cultural dimension usually defined as European and or North American. In this sense and due to the evident geographical and socio historical links between these regions critical scholarship on their literary connections can contribute to unprecedented perspectives of representational practices within a broader contextual dimension and in so doing provides the emergence of what Boaventura de Sousa Santos called epistemologies of the South Santos 2016 as it considers cultural exchanges in the space of so called overlapping territories and intertwined histories Said 1993

Militant Migrants Henry Dee, 2025-11-11 Born in colonial Malawi Clements Kadalie dramatically rose to global prominence as general secretary of the Industrial and Commercial Workers Union of Africa ICU during the 1920s. A famed orator, journalist and trade union organiser Kadalie electrified huge meetings with his call for economic freedom and all in mass organisation eclipsing nationalist contemporaries and unionising anywhere between 100 000 and 250 000 workers throughout South Africa, Namibia, Lesotho and Zimbabwe. A global labour history of Southern Africa from the perspective of the ICU's immigrant leadership Militant Migrants rehabilitates the significance of the early Malawian diaspora, the global importance of Kadalie's ideas, the rationale behind the ICU's transnational organising and the many awkward difficulties that Kadalie faced in his personal life. Although the ICU dramatically collapsed during the early 1930s Kadalie's fall from grace encapsulates a broader turning point in Southern African history offering unique insights into ideas of gender, nation and family that he and other immigrants challenged. Leaving a complicated legacy of unprecedented successes and inescapable failures Kadalie's life remains a compelling and necessary tale of audacity, solidarity and militant mass struggle not least of all because of the profound challenges that he faced

Student Resistance to Apartheid at the University of Fort Hare Rico Devara Chapman, 2016-05-12 The book explores forms of popular student resistance to apartheid education in South Africa particularly at the University of Fort Hare (UFH) by tracing student activism at UFH from 1970 to 2000 highlighting the factors that influenced the development of a culture of student resistance investigating the root causes that made Fort Hare exceptional in its stand against apartheid and chronicling the educational and social implications that resulted from students' unparalleled and fearless actions against the apartheid system. Student resistance at Fort Hare can be traced as far back as the 1940s however this book will primarily focus on the critical 1970

2000 period which was marked by increased student activism in South Africa The 1980s and 1990s were peak years for student activism in the country There is no doubt that student struggles during this period and thereafter helped dismantle apartheid and usher in a new South African government

Learning Spaces in Africa Ola Uduku, 2018-06-14 With a key UN Sustainable Development Goal for 2030 being to make basic education available to all the world's children Learning Spaces in Africa explores the architectural socio political and economic policy factors that have contributed to school design the main spaces for education and learning in Africa It traces the development of school building design focusing on Western and Southern Africa from its emergence in the 19th century to the present day Uduku's analysis draws attention to the past historic links of schools to development processes from their early 19th century missionary origins to their re emergence as development hubs in the 21st century Learning Spaces in Africa uses this research as a basis to suggest fundamental changes to basic education which respond to new technological advances and constituencies in learning Illustrated case studies describe the use of tablets in refugee community schools hole in the wall learning and shared school community learning spaces This book will be beneficial for students academics and those interested in the history of educational architecture and its effect on social development particularly in Africa and with relevance to countries elsewhere in the emerging world

The Training of African Teachers in Natal from 1846-1964 Nicolas Schicketanz, 2024-06-07 The history of African teacher training in Natal is one of the most neglected and under researched aspects of educational history This book attempts to set out the administrative history of this field as a first step in stimulating the further research that is so urgently needed Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa

The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean Since 1950 Simon Gikandi, 2016 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 examines the institutional and social peculiarities that make fiction produced in Africa and the Atlantic World since 1950 important to the history of the novel in English

Students Must Rise Ann Heffernan, Noor Nieftagodien, Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu, Bhekizizwe Peterson, 2016-06-01 A detailed account of the incredibly influential Soweto Student Uprising of 1976 The Soweto Student Uprising of 1976 was a decisive moment in the struggle against apartheid It marked the expansion of political activism to a new generation of young activists but beyond that it inscribed the role that young people of subsequent generations could play in their country's future Since that momentous time students have held a special place in the collective imaginary of South African history Drawing on research and writing by leading scholars and prominent activists Students Must Rise takes Soweto 76 as its pivot point but looks at student and youth activism in South Africa more broadly by considering what happened before and beyond the Soweto moment Early chapters assess the impact of the anti pass campaigns of the 1950s of political ideologies like black consciousness as well as of religion and culture in fostering political consciousness and organisation among youth and students in townships and rural areas Later chapters explore the wide reaching impact of June 16th itself for student organisation over the next two decades across the country Two final chapters consider contemporary student based political movements including RhodesMustFall and FeesMustFall and historically root these in the long and rich tradition of student activism in South Africa 2016 marks the 40th anniversary of the 1976 June 16th uprisings This book rethinks the conventional narrative of youth and student activism in South Africa by placing that most famous of moments the 1976 students uprising in Soweto in a deeper historical and geographic context

Global Perspectives on Boarding Schools in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries Daniel Gerster,Felicity Jensz,2022-11-14 In the nineteenth and twentieth centuries thousands of pupils attended boarding schools in various places across the globe Their experiences were vastly different yet they all had in common that they were separated from their families and childhood friends for a period of time in order to sleep eat learn and move within the limited spatial sites of the boarding school This book frames these boarding schools as a global and transcultural phenomenon that is part of larger political and social developments of European imperialism the Cold War and independence movements Drawing together case studies from colonial South Africa colonial India Dutch Indonesia early twentieth century Nigeria Fascist Spain Ghana Nazi Germany nineteenth century Ireland North America and the Soviet Union this edited collection examines the ways in which boarding schools extracted pupils from their original social background in order to train mold and shape them so that they could fit into the perceived position in broader society The book makes the broader argument that framing boarding schools as a global phenomenon is imperative for a deepened understanding of the global and transnational networks that linked people as well as ideas and practices of education and childhood in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries

The Fires Beneath Seán Morrow,2016-06-01 The life of Monica Wilson is a story of groundbreaking scholarship passionate creativity and personal tragedy during South Africa s bitter and divided twentieth century As a young anthropologist in the 1930s Monica immersed herself in the lives work and beliefs of African communities in southern and East Africa while carefully observing the effects of historical change At the core of her existence was her intellectual collaboration and intense personal relationship with her husband the brilliant but clinically depressive Godfrey Wilson who took his own life in 1944 After Godfrey s death Monica raised their two children and built a career as a leading academic at Fort Hare Rhodes University College and the University of Cape Town In a political environment where black academics were under constant threat and ideas were censored she outspokenly advocated racial equality and freedom of speech her publications emphasising a common South African identity and implicitly challenging apartheid separate development This fascinating biography moves between the Eastern Cape Cambridge Tanganyika Nyasaland Northern Rhodesia and Cape Town It explores the relationship between anthropology and history and the tensions between liberalism Christianity Marxism and apartheid ideology Drawing on the letters and diaries left by Monica and Godfrey Wilson this is a powerful story about politics race war faith love and loss

The Cape Doctor in the Nineteenth Century ,2016-08-29 The Cape Doctor is a social history of medicine which places formal Western medicine within its political social and economic context The work shows the way in which the Cape medical profession excluded all but a few women and black practitioners and discriminated along lines of race class and gender in their practice It revises traditional whiggish and linear accounts of professional advancement but it also moves beyond the classic revisionist tradition which documents the emergence of a society divided along lines of race and gender by providing examples of cultural crossover and medical pluralism It also provides a perspective on a broad historical process within which to understand present debates about the most appropriate health policies in South Africa today
