Great Power Cyber Competition David V. Gioe, Margaret W. Smith, 2024-02-20 This volume conceptualizes the threats challenges opportunities and boundaries of great power cyber competition of the 21st century This book focuses on a key dimension of contemporary great power competition that is often less understood due to its intangible character the competition taking place in the cyber domain including information and cyber operations Democracies across the globe find themselves in an unrelenting competition with peer and near peer competitors with a prevailing notion that no state is safe from the informational contest Adversarial powers particularly China and Russia recognize that most competition is principally non kinetic but dominates the information environment and cyberspace and the volume articulates the Russian and Chinese strategies to elevate cyber and information competition to a central position Western governments and in particular the U S government have long conceived of a war peace duality but that perspective is giving way to a more nuanced perception of competition This volume goes beyond analyzing the problems prevalent in the information space and offers a roadmap for Western powers to compete in and protect the global information environment from malicious actors Its genesis is rooted in the proposition that it is time for the West to push back against aggression and that it needs a relevant framework and tools to do so The book demonstrates that Western democratic states currently lack both the strategic and intellectual acumen to compete and win in the information and cyber domains and argues that the West needs a strategy to compete with near peer powers in information and cyber warfare This book will be of much interest to students of cyber warfare information warfare defense studies and international relations in general as well as practitioners

Education in South Africa Sue Timmis,Thea de Wet,Kibashini Naidoo,Sheila Trahar,Lisa Lucas,Emmanuel Mfanafuthi Mggwashu,Patricia Muhuro,Gina Wisker,2021-09-14 This unique and timely book focuses on research conducted into the experiences of students from rural backgrounds in South Africa foregrounding decolonial perspectives on their negotiation of access and transitions to higher education This book highlights not only the challenges of coming from a rural background against the historical backdrop of apartheid and ongoing colonialism but also shows the immense assets that students from rural areas bring into higher education Through detailed narratives created by student co researchers the book charts early experiences in rural communities negotiations of transitions to university and in many cases to urban life and students subsequent journeys through higher education spaces and curricula The book will be of significant interest and value to those engaged in rurality research across diverse settings those interested in the South African higher education context and higher education more widely Its innovative participatory methodology will be invaluable to researchers seeking to conduct collaborative research that draws on decolonising approaches Turning Promises Into Action ,2018 More than two years into the life of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development this report calls for dramatic advances in statistics financing and policies for gender equality as well as more determined steps towards democratic governance and accountability Based on robust data and expert analysis the report takes stock of where we stand on key aspects of gender equality globally tells us what is needed to monitor progress meaningfully and provides wideranging recommendations for change The Russian Understanding of War Oscar Jonsson,2019-11-01 This book analyzes the evolution of Russian military thought and how Russia s current thinking about war is reflected in recent crises While other books describe current Russian practice Oscar Jonsson provides the long view to show how Russian military strategic thinking has developed from the Bolshevik Revolution to the present He closely examines Russian primary sources including security doctrines and the writings and statements of Russian military theorists and political elites What Jonsson reveals is that Russia s conception of the very nature of war is now changing as Russian elites see information warfare and political subversion as the most important ways to conduct contemporary war Since information warfare and political subversion are below the traditional threshold of armed violence this has blurred the boundaries between war and peace Jonsson also finds that Russian leaders have particularly since 2011 considered themselves to be at war with the United States and its allies albeit with non violent means This book provides much needed context and analysis to be able to understand recent Russian interventions in Crimea and eastern Ukraine how to deter Russia on the eastern borders of NATO and how the West must also learn to avoid inadvertent escalation ICCWS 2017 12th International Conference on Cyber Warfare and Security Dr. Robert F. Mills ,Dr. Juan Lopez Jr,2017 Military Assistance on Request and the Use of Force Erika De Wet,2020-03-26 In countries such as Syria Iraq South Sudan and Yemen internationally recognized governments embroiled in protracted armed conflicts and with very little control over their territory have requested direct military assistance from other states These requests are often accepted by the other states despite the circumvention of the United Nations Security Council and extensive violation of international humanitarian law and human rights In this book Erika De Wet examines the authority entitled to extend a request for or consent to direct military assistance as well as the type of situations during which such assistance may be requested notably whether it may be requested during a civil war Ultimately De Wet addresses the question of if and to what extent the proliferation of military assistance on the request of a recognized government is changing the rules in international law applying to the use of force Decolonizing Civil Society in Mozambique Tanja Kleibl,2021-08-26 By demonstrating that Western conceptions of civil society have provided the framework for interpreting societies in the Global South Decolonizing Civil Society in Mozambique argues that it is only through a critical deconstruction of these concepts that we can start to re balance global power relationships both in academic discourse and in development practices Examining the exclusionary discourses framing the support for Western type NGOs in the development discourse often to the exclusion of local social actors this book dissects mainstream contemporary ideas about civil society and finds a new means by which to identify local forms of social action often based in traditional structures and spiritual discourses Outlining new conceptual ideas for an alternative framing of Mozambique s civil society Kleibl proposes a series of fresh theoretical issues and questions alongside empirical research moving towards a series of new policy and practice arguments for rethinking and decolonizing civil society in the Global South Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law, Volume 20, 2017 Terry D. Gill,Tim McCormack,Robin Geiß,Heike Krieger,Christophe Paulussen,2018-12-20 The main theme of this volume of the Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law is the development and interpretation of international humanitarian law IHL It is elaborated upon in several chapters that examine the role of non state armed groups in the development and interpretation of IHL the impact of international criminal law on the development of IHL the notion of external non international armed conflicts and the regulation of prolonged occupation under international law The second theme of this volume is dedicated to targeting in armed conflicts Specific topics include precautions in attack in urban and siege warfare the targeting of the Islamic State s religious personnel in Iraq and Syria and the targeting of illicit crops through aerial spraying in Colombia

Besides the chapters that address both themes this volume also contains a Year in Review describing the most important events and legal developments that took place in 2017. The Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law is the world's only annual publication devoted to the study of the laws governing armed conflict. It provides a truly international forum for high quality peer reviewed academic articles focusing on this crucial branch of international law. Distinguished by contemporary relevance, the Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law bridges the gap between theory and practice and serves as a useful reference tool for scholars, practitioners, military personnel, civil servants, diplomats, human rights workers and students.

Authoritarian Populism and the Rural World Ian Scoones, Marc Edelman, Saturnino M. Borrás Jr., Lyda Fernanda Forero, Ruth Hall, Wendy Wolford, Ben White, 2021-06-29. The rise of authoritarian nationalist forms of populism and the implications for rural actors and settings is one of the most crucial foci for critical agrarian studies today with many consequences for political action. Authoritarian Populism and the Rural World reflects on the rural origins and consequences of the emergence of authoritarian and populist leaders across the world as well as on the rise of multi class mobilisation and resistance alongside wider counter movements and alternative practices which together confront authoritarianism and nationalist populism. The book includes 20 chapters written by contributors to the Emancipatory Rural Politics Initiative (ERPI), a global network of academics and activists committed to both reflective analysis and political engagement. Debates about populism, nationalism, authoritarianism and more have exploded recently but relatively little of this has focused on the rural dimensions. Yet wherever one looks the rural aspects are key not just in electoral calculus but in understanding underlying drivers of authoritarianism and populism and potential counter movements to these. Whether because of land grabs, voracious extractivism, infrastructural neglect or lack of services, rural peoples' disillusionment with the status quo has had deeply troubling consequences and occasionally hopeful ones as the chapters in this book show. The chapters in this book were originally published in The Journal of Peasant Studies.
