Workbook Set Robert F. Bruner, 2009-11 Addresses the key factors of M A success and failure Readers will learn the art and science of M A valuation deal negotiation and bargaining and a framework for considering trade offs in an effort to optimize the value of any M A deal Deals from Hell Robert F. Bruner, 2015-09-28 A detailed look at the worst M A deals ever and the lessons learned from them It s common knowledge that about half of all merger and acquisition M A transactions destroy value for the buyer s shareholders and about three quarters fall short of the expectations prevailing at the time the deal is announced In Deals from Hell Robert Bruner one of the foremost thinkers and educators in this field uncovers the real reasons for these mishaps by taking a closer look at twelve specific instances of M A failure Through these real world examples he shows readers what went wrong and why and converts these examples into cautionary tales for executives who need to know how they can successfully navigate their own M A deals These page turning business narratives in M A failure provide much needed guidance in this area of business By addressing the key factors to M A success and failure this comprehensive guide illustrates the best ways to analyze design and implement M A deals Filled with in depth insights expert advice and valuable lessons gleaned from other M A transactions Deals from Hell helps readers avoid the common pitfalls associated with this field and presents them with a clear framework for thinking about how to make any M A transaction a success

German Mergers & Acquisitions in the USA Bernd Wübben, 2007-11-29 Bernd W bben analyzes the success of 87 German mergers and acquisitions in the USA during the period from 1990 to 2004 Employing a study of the capital markets reaction and a survey of acquirers executives he shows that US transactions on average enhanced value for German companies and their shareholders The author integrates the findings of both methodologies to identify the determinants of transaction success including characteristics of the German acquiring and the US target companies as well as of the acquisition structure and management The Handbook of Mergers and Acquisitions David Faulkner, Satu

Teerikangas, Richard J. Joseph, 2012-06-07 With its inception at the end of the nineteenth century as a means of consolidation and reorganization mergers and acquisitions M A have since become quasi institutionalized as one of the primary strategic options for organizations as they seek to secure their position in an ever more competitive and globalizing market place Despite the optimism surrounding M A as strategic moves research on post merger company performance suggests that most firms engaging in M A activity do not achieve the sought after performance targets either immediately or in the years following the deal What is it that drives M A activity when research results do not support the performance expectations of these undertakings Alternatively have M A scholars got it all wrong in the way that M A performance is measured Is the topic too complex enduring and multifaceted to study The Handbook argues that the field of M A is in need of a re rooting past research needs to be critically reviewed and fundamental assumptions revisited A key issue preventing efforts in the practice and study of M A from achieving dynamic syntheses has been the disciplinary gulf separating strategy finance and human relations schools The Handbook aims to bridge the hitherto separate disciplines engaged in the study and practice of M A to provide more meaningful results Toward this end the Handbook brings together a set of prominent and emerging scholars and practitioners engaged in the study of M A to provide thought provoking state of the art overviews of M A through four specific lenses strategic financial socio cultural and sectorial approaches By summarizing key findings in current research and exploring ways in which the differing approaches could and should be synthesized it aims to highlight the key issues facing M A practitioners and academics at the dawn of the third millennium
