Practicing Applied Anthropology Across Discontinuous Social Fields Keith V. Bletzer, 2023-07-19 This book covers the author's field experiences as an ethnographer in one country of Central America and an applied anthropologist in four US regions. A range of social fields are examined which include constructing a work experience table as a composite job resume, correspondence with a maximum security prisoner for more than ten years, design features for multiple choice testing, farmworker sero-prevalence reports, health seeking behavior among the Ng'bo indigenous people in Central America, HIV/AIDS education in rural farm labor camps, Latinx naming practices for grocery stores and restaurants in agricultural areas, organizational capacity building assistance training and teaching students in a community college and three secondary schools among others. The book highlights the importance of incorporating ethnography in the completion of work tasks across a range of social fields which represent diverse socio-cultural groups and immigrant populations.
