You'll Never Walk Andy Grant, 2018-05-24 When Andy Grant's eyes blinked open from a 10 day coma in February 2009 he was alone in a hospital bed in Birmingham He had a broken sternum a broken leg a broken elbow and shrapnel lodged in both forearms He had a severed femoral artery nerve damage to his hands and feet as well as deep gaping wounds in both of his cheeks He had been blown up during a routine foot patrol in Afghanistan Within days of coming to his senses a doctor told Andy that because of the blast he would no longer be able to have children You'll Never Walk is his story The tale of a Scouser who had to cope with losing his mum at the tender age of 12 The story of how a dream career in the Royal Marines descended into nightmare at the hands of the Taliban The painstaking account of how he grew back six centimetres of shattered bone in his leg and learned to walk again However Andy wanted to run and push himself to the very edge of his limits and so he made a colossal decision Against doctor's advice and pleas from his father he chose to have his leg amputated The operation was a success although there was a minor twist Where once Andy's treasured Liverpool FC tattoo had carried the message You'll Never Walk Alone surgery to create a stump removed a key word from the slogan The scars of his amputation had been decorated with an ominous new motto which read You'll Never Walk Andy would walk again he would do much more than that Armed with a running blade he learned to run and play football scaled mountains in South America and Italy and claimed two gold medals at Prince Harry's Invictus Games Through public speaking he brought hope to people right across the country In 2016 he set his sights on a 10k below the knee amputee world record and completed the run in an unprecedented 37 minutes 17 seconds And most
