longer people is Tilly's mantra as she trains for her first Ironman with her best friend coach Camas. Set in an idyllic northwest town on a pristine glacier formed lake, Tilly sets out to tackle an Ironman for an environmental cause to convince people to curb their consumerism to give the planet a fighting chance against climate change. She can swim like a dolphin and run like the wind. Still, she doesn't know how to cycle, so she relies on a curmudgeon former athlete, her irreverent tattooed best friend Camas, a group of maverick mountain bike guys, an old pirate, and her water dog Pedro to overcome her obstacles and save the town of Sandglass. One More Year is Book 1 of the Pedro the Water Dog Saves the Planet series, a read in an afternoon novella length outdoor adventure filled with lovable quirky characters in a candy wrapper of laughter, irreverence, kisses, friendship, satire, mountain bike jumps, love, and magnificent scenic beauty. In these wonderful stories, Kalfsbeek addresses important environmental issues through the loving, gentle hands of a cast of characters that are easy to connect with. One wants to be part of this healthy gang; it is easy to fall in love with one or two of them. She has found an avenue to address these critical issues that must be talked about but without a heavy hammer. A delightful read that will fill you with hope and a forgotten bounce in your step or pedal. Chris White, author of Wind Waves and a Suicidal Boat, says Kalfsbeek has an immense love of nature and can be found with her own water dog Teo swimming, hiking, and biking wherever their human and canine feet lead them. She encourages you to keep your stuff longer, to slow down our overconsumption, and give the planet a fighting chance.
