now vigorously enforces both competition and intellectual property laws Most other countries in Asia have only recently introduced intellectual property laws due to the Trade Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights TRIPS Agreement and competition laws sometimes due to the World Bank International Monetary Fund or free trade agreements It would be naive to think that laws even if similar on the surface have the same goals or can be enforced similarly Countries have differing degrees of acceptance of these laws different economic circumstances and differing legal and political institutions To set the scene Judge Doug Ginsburg Greg Sidak David Teece and Bill Kovacic look at the intersection of intellectual property and competition laws in the United States Next are country chapters on Asia each jointly authored by a lawyer and an economist The country chapters outline the institutional background to the intersection in each country discuss the policy underpinnings theoretically as well as describing actual policy initiatives analyse the case law in the area and make policy prescriptions

Sketchbook Timothy O'Donnell, 2009-05-01 This book explores influential designers sketchbooks as a truer reflection of a designer's thought processes preoccupations and problem solving strategies than can be had by simply viewing finished projects Highly personal and idiosyncratic sketchbooks offer an arena for unstructured exploration a space free from all budgetary and client constraints Visually arresting objects in their own right this book aims to elevate sketches from mere ephemera to important documents where the reader can glean valuable insight into the creative process and apply it to their own practices Featured designers include Ralph Caplan Nigel Holmes Chris Bigg Eva Jiricna Jason Munn Gary Baseman Marian Bantjes and many others

Law, Sex, and Christian Society in Medieval Europe James A. Brundage, 2009-02-15 This monumental study of medieval law and sexual conduct explores the origin and development of the Christian church's sex law and the systems of belief upon which that law rested Focusing on the Church's own legal system of canon law James A Brundage offers a comprehensive history of legal doctrines covering the millennium from A D 500 to 1500 concerning a wide variety of sexual behavior including marital sex adultery homosexuality concubinage prostitution masturbation and incest His survey makes strikingly clear how the system of sexual control in a world we have half forgotten has shaped the world in which we live today The regulation of marriage and divorce as we know it today together with the outlawing of bigamy and polygamy and the imposition of criminal sanctions on such activities as sodomy fellatio cunnilingus and bestiality are all based in large measure upon ideas and beliefs about sexual morality that became law in Christian Europe in the Middle Ages Brundage's book is consistently learned enormously useful and frequently entertaining It is the best we have on the relationships between theological norms legal principles and sexual practice Peter Iver Kaufman Church History
