Case Studies in Jewish Business Ethics Aaron Levine, 2000 Many people think of business as a game of strategy and argue that whatever works for business success is acceptable even if it involves cheating deceptions and other improprieties Jewish business law rejects this approach Using specific case studies this book analyzes the strategies that are impermissible discussing deceptive advertising negative advertising pressure tactics in sales insider trading price matching worker evaluations termination policy and many others An excellent adult education volume Off the Record David Morton, 2000 A cultural and economic history of sound recording technology Understanding Spoken English - Teacher's Book Two Susan Boyer, 2003 This book is designed to help students of English understand spoken language as it is encountered in everyday business and social situations in English speaking environments around the world It provides information about the social and business conventions of spoken English such as talking about plans and intentions agreeing and disagreeing politely checking meaning and giving feedback and using telephoning and interview strategies Political

Disappointment Sara Marcus, 2023-05-30 Political Disappointment is an abundant text overflowing with Sara Marcus s considerable gifts She is adept at presenting history and narrative with equal clarity her writing is urgent but also optimistic This is a book that is sometimes painful but never sacrifices hope or beauty Hanif Abdurraqib Moving from the aftermath of Reconstruction through the AIDS crisis a new cultural history of the United States shows how artists intellectuals and activists turned political disappointment the unfulfilled desire for change into a basis for solidarity Sara Marcus argues that the defining texts in twentieth century American cultural history are records of political disappointment Through insightful and often surprising readings of literature and sound Marcus offers a new cultural history of the last century in which creative minds observed the passing of moments of possibility took stock of the losses sustained and fostered intellectual revolutions and unexpected solidarities Political Disappointment shows how by confronting disappointment directly writers and artists helped to produce new political meanings and possibilities Marcus first analyzes works by W E B Du Bois Charles Chesnutt Pauline Hopkins and the Fisk Jubilee Singers that expressed the anguish of the early Jim Crow era during which white supremacy thwarted the rebuilding of the country as a multiracial democracy In the ensuing decades the Popular Front work songs and stories of Lead Belly and Tillie Olsen the soundscapes of the civil rights and Black Power movements the feminist poetry of Audre Lorde and Adrienne Rich and the queer art of Marlon Riggs and David Wojnarowicz continued building the century long archive of disappointment Marcus shows how defeat time and again gave rise to novel modes of protest and new forms of collective practice keeping alive the dream of a better world Disappointment has proved to be a durable perhaps even inevitable feature of the democratic project yet so too has the resistance it precipitates Marcus s unique history of the twentieth century reclaims the unrealized desire for liberation as a productive force in American literature and life
