Transnational Protest, Australia and the 1960s Jon Piccini, 2016-05-09 Australia is rarely considered to have been a part of the great political changes that swept the world in the 1960s the struggles of the American civil rights movement student revolts in Europe guerrilla struggles across the Third World and demands for women's and gay liberation This book tells the story of how Australian activists from a diversity of movements read about borrowed from physically encountered and critiqued overseas manifestations of these rebellions as well as locating the impact of radical visitors to the nation It situates Australian protest and reform movements within a properly global and particularly Asian context where Australian protestors sought answers utopias and allies Dramatically broadens our understanding of Australian protest movements this book presents them not only as manifestations of local issues and causes but as fundamentally tied to ideas developments and personalities overseas particularly to socialist states and struggles in near neighbours like Vietnam Malaysia and China Jon Piccini is Research and Teaching Fellow at The University of Queensland Brisbane Australia His research interests include the history of human rights and social histories of international student migration

The Politics of the Encounter Andy Merrifield, 2013-04-15 The Politics of the Encounter is a spirited interrogation of the city as a site of both theoretical inquiry and global social struggle The city writes Andy Merrifield remains important virtually and materially for progressive politics And yet he notes more than forty years have passed since Henri Lefebvre advanced the powerful ideas that still undergird much of our thinking about urbanization and urban society Merrifield rethinks the city in light of the vast changes to our planet since 1970 when Lefebvre's seminal Urban Revolution was first published At the same time he expands on Lefebvre's notion of the right to the city which was first conceived in the wake of the 1968 student uprising in Paris We need to think less of cities as entities with borders and clear demarcations between what's inside and what's outside and emphasize instead the effects of planetary urbanization a concept of Lefebvre's that Merrifield makes relevant for the ways we now experience the urban The city from Tahrir Square to Occupy Wall Street seems to be the critical zone in which a new social protest is unfolding yet dissenters' aspirations are transcending the scale of the city physically and philosophically Consequently we must shift our perspective from the right to the city to the politics of the encounter says Merrifield We must ask how revolutionary crowds form where they draw their energies from what kind of spaces they occur in and what kind of new spaces they produce
